PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. J. E. Wright, offered the following prayer:

O God, we come before Thee this morning according to our custom to render to Thee our worship and to give to Thee our thanks. It is eminently fitting that we recognize the guardianship which has hitherto kept us, and we should pray for its continuance. We know not at any time when the morning dawns what the day may bring forth, but we know this, that the time to serve Thee is always present. We ask, therefore, that Thou wouldst strengthen within us for this day's work all right resolve and all earnest purpose. May no thought of evil corrupt our hearts; may no word of evil pollute our lips; may no act of evil stain or dishonor our lives. Wilt Thou not merely keep us from all evil, but constrain us to the good. As the sons of a Father whose character is glorious may we try in some simple way to reflect that glory and to imitate that life and so send forth light. We ask these things with Thy favor and grace in the name and for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

of the Auditor General. No land shall be acquired under the provisions of this act until there shall be filed with the Commission satisfactory waivers of all damage from owners of lands in the State of Ohio to be submerged or which may possibly be submerged through the operation of said dam and reservoir.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WALTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments:

The amendments were read by the Clerk.

Section 8, line 7, strike out "accomplished" and insert in lieu thereof "accompanied."

Section 8 lines 7-8, strike out "certified" and insert in lieu thereof "verified."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The section as amended was then agreed to.

The preamble was read as follows:

Whereas By an act approved the fourteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven entitled "An Act providing for a survey of Pymatuning Swamp and an examination into the feasibility of constructing a reservoir therein to conserve the waters draining into said swamp and making an appropriation therefor" the Water Supply Commission was directed to survey Pymatuning Swamp in Crawford county and the lands contiguous or adjacent thereto and to examine into the feasibility of constructing a dam or dams across the outlet or outlets of said swamp whereby the waters entering the same might be conserved and the flow of water regulated in the Shenango and Beaver Rivers and

Whereas In pursuance of said act the Water Supply Commission caused said survey to be made and has presented its report thereon and

Whereas In said report the Water Supply Commission states that the project is a feasible one that a portion of said Pymatuning Swamp can be converted into a storage reservoir by constructing a dam across the valley of the Shenango River that the low water flow in the Shenango River would thereby be increased about two hundred seventy-five million gallons per diem that the reservoir would eliminate any considerable contribution to floods from the territory above the dam that the proposed reservoir would improve the sanitary conditions of the Shenango and Beaver Rivers and of the Swamp that approximately two thousand primary horse power would be added to existing water power in the Beaver River that the construction of the dam and reservoir would cause a benefit along the Shenango and Beaver valleys more than commensurate with the cost of the project that the industrial development would be increased and that the communities in the vicinity of the reservoir would be benefited through improved highways the creation of an attractive lake increased water transportation and better sanitary conditions therefor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the preamble?

Mr. WALTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments:

REPORTS OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEES.

The SPEAKER. Reports of conference committees on the last page of the calendar, House Bill No. 869.

The Clerk will read the report of the committee.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, before the reading of the report, I wish to say that I was unable to find the correct file folio of this bill, and as to whether this is the correct one or not. I am not sure.

The SPEAKER. 8061 is the file folio on the calendar. The gentlemen will kindly examine the files and see if the file folio is correct, otherwise, the bill will not be taken up.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, it is not correct.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie on the table. The next bill does not even pretend to be on the file and this order of business will be deferred. Bills on final passage, page five, will be taken up. Numbers one and two, calendar numbers, are Senate bills. Number three, calendar number, is the General Appropriation Bill, and as a number of members are not present who would like to be recorded upon it, it may be postponed—however, it is not on the file. We have the promise that the bills will be on the files at noon, which may or may not be fulfilled. Calendar number bills for five and six are not on the files. We will proceed with bills on third reading. Calendar number 12, on page 10, House bill No. 1062, not being on the files it will be passed.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, as a matter of information, could the House be informed how much printing has been done by the printer and furnished this House since last Thursday, the time the House adjourned? Could that data be furnished from any office?

The SPEAKER. That would be a very proper inquiry.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, the reason I suggest this inquiry is to be fair, as I try to be. It does seem to me that the manner in which this House is being treated by the printer has some motive behind it and that the motive does not appear on the surface. There is not any reason why a man who has been awarded the contract for the amount of printing that has to be done and furnished to this House from day to day should not furnish at least a greater percentage of the requirement than is met by present conditions. If I recall aright about the only bunch of bills that I have received this week is about sixty or eighty folios; and there are not more than that. A little bunch that large (exhibiting about eighty folios) and there has not been anything else—practically nothing else. There has been no large bills gotten out. Now, the question is why. It is absurd that this House is called here at ten o'clock, which is a reasonably late hour, and have nothing done since yesterday; no new matter on the desk, to be delayed by the calling up of bills and by looking to see if bills are on file. I move that the Chair ask some Clerk of the House into whose hands this matter first falls as to how much printing has been furnished this House since the session convened—since last Monday night, and let us be advised and look into the matter and take such steps as may be necessary.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Assistant Resident Clerk informs the Chair that by noon he can furnish the list in response to the inquiry of the gentleman from Allegheny, which the Chair regards as a very proper and timely inquiry.

An Act to validate affidavits and acknowledgements heretofore taken and other officials acts heretofore performed by justices of the peace of this Commonwealth between the date of the expiration of their respective commission and the first Monday of May one thousand nine hundred and thirteen

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. GRAMLEY. Mr. Speaker, this bill is intended to validate affidavits and acknowledgments taken by justices of the peace whose terms had expired and they continued their work, I dare not say carelessly, but inadvertently. A certain official of Centre County had been appointed to the office of Justice of the Peace and he continued to do work of this kind after his term had expired without knowing his term expired. He is now again appointed by the Governor, but he did some official acts in the interim which he should not have done. He did them inadvertently and to legalize these acts this bill is before you. It is a meritorious one, eminently proper and nothing wrong in it, and I ask your support.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like, if there is any one in the House who can give us a little idea of the purposes of this bill to have some one explain it, but as there doesn't seem to be any one, I move that a further consideration be postponed for the present.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2072 (Senate No. 1395), entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-one of an act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred eighty-nine entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An Act to provide revenue by taxation' approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine" as amended.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, the House will probably remember that some weeks ago we had a bill up including in it a clause exempting from taxation laundries on the basis of their being a manufacturing corporation. I don't believe that a laundry is a manufacturing corporation and didn't then. The bill finally passed the House and Senate and went to the Governor and the Governor vetoed it on the ground that a laundry is not a manufacturing corporation. Now they come back with the same bill, practically, amending an old bill and including in it "laundries or manufacturing corporations." That is the only amendment in the bill; thus recognizing that there is a distinction between laundries and manufacturing corporations. They tried to exempt from taxation on their capital stock by a different method. It seems to me that if we are going to exempt different classes of manufactures or interests from taxes, we will have to secure revenue from another source in this State.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire from the gentleman from Tioga, is it not a fact that the Governor in vetoing this bill admitted later that he had not given it the thought he should have given it and that he had made a mistake in vetoing it?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, he did not think that a laundry proposition was a manufacturing corporation.

Mr. R. J. BALWDIN. Mr. Speaker, I suppose the members are not obliged to vote as the Governor may think. I merely want to make this statement so that House will be fully informed as to what occurred. My thought along that line, personally, is this: We have exempted manufacturing corporations in our State and I realize that we come up to a fine dividing line after a while as to what is a manufacturing corporation. We have now arrived at that point. Many people feel that a laundry is a corporation for manufacturing as much as any other manufacturing corporation. Yet many other things that have fallen over into the family of exemption from taxation have done so, because they are classed as manufacturing corporations. One of the questions I speak of or the subjects, is the proposition of manufacturing electricity. That was thought by many not to be a manufacturing corporation, and I am not sure myself. I suggest that there is a fine dividing line somewhere and the question is where that line is and whether the State should tax all classed as manufacturing corporations. The purpose of putting this laundry amendment into this act is for the purpose of deciding as a certainty how it shall be treated. It is immaterial to me whether the House decides that a laundry shall be treated as a manufacturing corporation or not. I think it is well worth a trial and that it should be considered as a manufacturing corporation, having in mind what I say that in so far as an additional exemption is concerned for the laundry business, it is a question of defining the status of a manufacturing corporation and get the question of whether a manufacturing corporation should pay the same taxation no matter in what class they are. This Legislature has expressed itself a number of times that it has a right at any time to change or place a tax on the capital stock of a manufacturing corporation. We all understand that manufacturing corporations pay their local taxes. This proposition is to exempt manufacturing corporations from taxation on their capital stock; their local tax is paid just the same as we pay ours, but they are exempt from paying any tax on capital stock. If you please, this taxation is that class which is paying tax on capital stock, pays five mills while the other corporations are paying nothing. The question is this, shall laundries pay five mills tax upon their capital stock or shall they be exempt? The question is, shall they be treated as other manufacturing corporations are? If the House feels that they should be exempt, then they should vote aye on this bill. If they feel that they are not manufacturing corporations and that they should not be exempt from taxation on capital stock, or if they feel that this exemption should not also be extended to laundries but feel that laundries should be treated differently and that they should pay a five mill tax, then they should vote no. I think I shall vote aye on this bill.

Mr. KITTS. In order that the House may have the information before it in regard to the vetoing of this former bill by the Governor, I desire to explain the process by which this veto came about. You will recall, because it was explained to you, that the commission appointed at the last legislative assembly to inquire into the revenue laws of the Commonwealth consisted of our present Speaker, Mr. George E. Alter, Mr. Shreve, Mr. Woodward, Mr. James P. McNichol, Mr. William P. Sproul and Mr. William H. Keyser, and they are referred to in this report which I have here. They reported back to the House that the commission finds that the laundry industry should be classed as a manufacturing concern. They are so classified in the bulletin report from the census of the United States, which I hold in my hand. I got that in order that I might have the requisite information. The bill passed both branches of the Legislature, went through to the Attorney General and up to the Governor. None of the members went there to explain this bill. In an interview, later, the Governor said he had forgotten the report from these men which I have cited and inadvertently vetoed the bill. It was upon the suggestion of Governor Tener that this bill was placed on the Senate Calendar for the reason that it was too late to place in the House at that time. The Governor stated that he authorized any member to quote him, if he desired to do so, on the floor of either branch of the Legislature, that he had inadvertently vetoed the bill and would like to have another bill introduced in order that he could right himself in that mistake. It is not a question as to whether we should construct or classify the laundry as a manufacturing concern or whether we should refuse. You will recall that a laundry is usually equipped with a small amount of machinery and therefore, their capital stock is small and the profits are so small and the competition is so keen that there is very little profit in the business. I do more bankruptcy business in my home along this line, and there are more receiverships and failure among the laundry business than any other line of business. It was decided by the courts of this State that the laundry is a manufacturing concern. It has been decided that dye and cleaning works which do nothing more than the laundry does, simply renovate and clean garments, are manufacturing concerns. It has been decided that manufacturers of electricity are manufacturing concerns. It seems to me that we should not bias our judgment from the fact that the Governor vetoes the former bill on the point as to whether or not they are manufacturing concerns but we should vote on this bill along the lines of equalizing revenue taxation. The argument advanced by the gentleman from Delaware should be appreciated. I appreciate Mr. Rockwell's contention and I will admit that I could not, at the time when this other bill was introduced, myself, see that a laundry was a manufacturing concern. I took it upon myself to examine the court decisions of this State and also this report which came back from the commission of which Mr. Alter was the head and I examined the census report of the United States and the State and the City of New York State and I am convinced without a reasonable doubt that the laundry is a manufacturing industry; I am convinced of that without a shadow of doubt that it is a manufacturing concern, and I say that owing to the fact that the Governor inadvertently vetoed the bill, that this bill is in better form and the phraseology is more desirable and it is better in every way than the other bill and I hope the House will vote favorably upon this bill.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Mr. McCLINTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I really don't think there is any necessity for postponing this bill at this time. A similar bill of this character passed the House before and I think the bill should now pass the House.

The motion was agreed to.

NAYS—1.

Cox,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk return same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 2040 (Senate No. 1209), entitled:

An Act authorizing each city in this Commonwealth to prepare adopt and amend its own charter regulating the preparation adoption and amendment thereof providing penalties for violations of the act and repealing certain laws relating to the government of cities

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, in the absence of the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Humes, who is looking after this bill, I move that its further consideration be postponed for the present.

Mr. ULMAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, this measure simply gives the people of a municipality a right to decide what sort of government they desire, and I can see no reason why the gentlemen of this House should oppose a measure of this character. It does not prevent the municipalities who desire a commission form of government from having their choice, but it does give those people the right, who do not desire a commission form of government, also the same right to say by a popular vote as to whether or not they desire it.

I really think that the gentlemen of the House, in all fairness, should pass this measure.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Humes is more familiar with this bill than any one else and he wants to make some statements to the House when it is under consideration and out of consideration to him I hope the members of the House will postpone the bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would state for the information of the House that Mr. Humes is engaged on a Conference Committee.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, this bill was brought out of the Committee on motion of Mr. Humes of Crawford, who has looked into it and who has some information that the members ought to have before they vote on it.

On the question recurring,

A rising vote was taken and 47 having voted in the affirmative and 57 in the negative, the motion was not agreed to.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. ELY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, certainly this House is willing to allow that much of home government. I have seen this House vote almost unanimously, or at least in a very large majority, for the initiative and referendum and all that sort of new ideas of government, as I call them, to the extent that I did not come any where near agreeing with them. But I certainly think the citizens of the boroughs should have the right to make any change in their charters that they wish. What is the danger in that? Why should not that right be given to the boroughs? I have as many boroughs in my county as any man.

The SPEAKER. The act relates to cities only.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, if it still applies to cities only, I make the same argument. It is a question of home government. It does not mean anything else.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I really cannot see why any fair minded man can oppose this measure. It appears very much to me that the gentlemen who are at present time opposing the passage of this measure are the very gentlemen who are in favor of the Commission Form of Government, and it appears to me, Mr. Speaker, that in making this effort to throttle this measure they are afraid to submit the question of Commission Form of Government to their own people. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I would call upon the gentlemen of this House to support this measure and give those municipalities that do desire their own form of government, to have it in their own way.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. EHRHARDT and Mr. HAGGERTY and were as follows:

YEAS—37.

Adams, Baldwin, G. A., Benninger, Bittles, Brosius, Carson, Cheeseman, Claycomb, Cleary,	Down, Ely, Forster, I. G., Glenn, Gramley, Hemminger, Howard, R., Irwin, H. H., Kuhn, H. P.,	Kuhns, E.G.M., Light, Lohr, McAllister, Miller, Mitchell, Morrow, Moses, Musser,	Post, Runk, Sassaman, Shaffer, I. E., Smith, J. W., Spangler, Stone, Strauss, Whitman, Young, G. K.,
--	--	--	---

NAYS—89.

Alworth, Baldwin, R. J., Barner, Bass, Benson, Bigger, Brown, Brownlee, Burnett, Caldwell, Campbell, C. M., Campbell, J. J., Carter, Conner, Conrade, Cox, Currier, Curry, Dickinson, Donnelly, Dunn, H. B., Dunn, J. A., Ehrhardt,	Foster, J. D., Frey, Geary, Gibson, Goss, Grabe, Gray, Joseph, Hackett, Haggerty, Heidinger, Heyburn, Hibshman, Hobbs, Howard, R., Forster, I. G., Jackson, Jones, E. E., Kennedy, Kitts, Klepper, Lenker, Leslie,	Letzkus, Lowers, Martin, Matt, McCaig, McClintock, McDermott, Mechling, Metzenbacher, Moore, Moulthrop, Neel, Neely, Newbaker, North, O'Neill, Pennegar, Peters, Ramsey, Redfield, Reese, Reeser,	Rockwell, Roney, Savacool, Schaeffer, A. C., Scott, J. R. K., Scott, S. B., Semmens, Shaffer, C. A., Sherwood, Smith, L., Snively, Snyder, Ulman, Wildman, Williams, Wilson, J. H., Wilson, W. H., Wiltbank, Young, J. H., Zimmerman, Alter, Speaker.
---	---	--	--

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

Hon. Samuel B. Scott, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa.

EDWARD PENNOCK.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18, 1913.

Hon. J. R. K. Scott,
 House of Representatives,
 Harrisburg, Penn.

My dear Mr. Scott: I think that we who are interested in gaining a Municipal Court for Philadelphia are to be congratulated upon the very slight amendment which the Municipal Court Bill has suffered in its passage through the Senate.

I need not point out to you that the City Club of Philadelphia together with some other twenty organizations, has stood for the Bill as the Committee of Seventy drew it from the first and now stands for the Bill as the Senate has amended it. Apparently everything that is essential to the creating of an adequate Municipal Court for Philadelphia is included in the Bill. I earnestly hope that you will do everything in your power to see to it that Philadelphia has the relief that can come to it only, as we believe, by the establishment of a Municipal Court.

Faithfully yours,
 HUBERT W. WELLS, Secretary.

Amend section 8, by striking out the brackets in line four Strike out all the rest of the brackets in section eight. Strike out the word "less" in the line five.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I object to the amendment.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I move we go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the motion to go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendment.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, in explanation of this amendment if you will turn to section eight, page seven of this bill, you will notice that this section has been amended in committee to make it mean that the least violation of this section by any farmer or anybody else intentionally or unintentionally must be fined at least twenty-five dollars. All the experience is if you make a bill so drastic, the penalty of the law so severe that it does not come up to the expectation of the people and they have a reasonable belief against enforcing it you cannot enforce the law at all. Under this section as amended, if a farmer inadvertently sells a bushel of corn or makes the least mistake in the regular measure the Justice of the Peace would absolutely be compelled to fine him twenty-five dollars. The bill originally was "not more than twenty-five dollars" which would leave it to the judge or Justice of the Peace in trying the case as to the amount of fine that should be imposed, which seems to me perfectly reasonable.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, this amendment was put in the bill according to the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General who believed that the bill is better as it is than if it were amended as suggested by the gentleman from Tioga. The Assistant Attorney was in favor of the bill as it is and that is the reason I object to the gentleman's amendment.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I want to call attention of the House to this section which is the penalty section of the act and indicates that any violation of any kind no matter how small or great it is, is covered by this section. The suggestion made by the gentleman is not germane and would not apply. It is an absolute iron-clad rule. No matter what kind of violation is involved, the violator whether the act is done intentionally or unintentionally must be fined twenty-five dollars, the way the bill now reads. The amendment I offer gives it to the discretion of the Court or Justice of the Peace who is trying the case to make a reasonable fine do, and if the violator who is fined has made it clear that the offense was deliberately intentional and unlawful he can fine him even up to hundred dollars.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my objection to the amendment.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, then I withdraw my motion to go into Committee of the Whole.

The SPEAKER. The question is will the House give its unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment?

The Chair hears no objection and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill be prepared for final passage.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. Bill No. 2060 (Senate No. 1047) entitled:

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I hope the House will allow this bill to be reconsidered and at the time of passage I will give full explanation and the House can then pass its opinion upon the bill. It is a matter that I feel the House will support when they understand it. It is the question of turning into one single department the question of our statistics over in the Bureau of Health, which includes the vital statistics of our State. The bill was defeated by a viva voce vote without any explanation at the time.

REPORT RELATIVE TO PRINTING.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk reports to the Chair in compliance with the motion adopted this morning that since Thursday, June 12th, 1913, in addition to pink bills of the House and Senate, pink calendars of the House and Senate, and the Legislative Journals, the House has received from the Printer the following:

Five white House Calendars, total of 164 pages, these being the daily calendars of the House;

Fifty-three white Senate Bills, file folio 4929 to 5206, a total of 277 pages;

Forty-three white House Bills, file folio 11075 to 11598, a total of 523 pages, making an aggregate of 964 pages of printed matter in addition to the items referred to, the pink bills of the House and Senate and the Legislative Journal.

In view of the fact that most of the white bills are merely reprinted from the plates of former pink bills, this does not seem to indicate a very astounding degree of industry on the part of the Printer.

ATTENDANCE OF MEMBERS.

The SPEAKER. Before taking a recess until three o'clock, the Chair desires to call the attention of the members to the fact that shortly after reconvening there will be up for consideration a large number of appropriation bills to private institutions, and unless there is a larger attendance than there was on the last few roll calls, these bills cannot be laid before the House. Unless 138 members are present the Chair will not permit the private appropriation bills to be voted upon except by the ordinary roll calls, which, of course, would be fatal to the bills.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I would suggest that it is not proper for the House to remain inactive simply because there are not sufficient here to have a constitutional majority for such bills. I do not think that those who are here should remain passive, and I think that those who are not here should be compelled to be present.

The SPEAKER. That will be a matter to be considered and acted upon by the House if the situation arises.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER, the hour of one o'clock having arrived, this House will now take a recess until three o'clock P. M.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at three o'clock P. M.
The SPEAKER (George E. Alter) in the Chair.

And has appointed Messrs. Jones, Moore and Sones, a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives, (if the House of Representatives shall appoint such committee), on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses in relation said bill.

Mr. REESER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its non-concurrence to the amendments made by the Senate to above bill and that a committee of Conference be appointed to confer with a similar committee of the Senate already appointed to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. LIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

T. B. H. Brownlee, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of Washington and Jefferson College held tonight the following was adopted:

Resolved by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of Washington and Jefferson College that in the opinion of this committee the State should not appropriate money to educational institutions not under direct State control, and therefore the Legislature of Pennsylvania should not be asked to pass the bills now pending making such an appropriation to this College. I thank you and Senator Judson for your friendly interest and your efforts to help the college.

(Signed) ERNEST F. ACHESON.

Mr. BROWNLEE. Mr. Speaker, in order to set myself right before this House, I want to say that these bills were introduced with the approval of the President of the College and certain resident trustees, but I understand now that no action had been taken by the Board of Trustees. SENATE MESSAGE.

SENATE CONCURS IN RESOLUTION.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the Resolution of the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 18, 1913.

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the House reconsider its vote for non-concurrence in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 956, and that the House Conference Committee be recalled from the further consideration of said bill.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments made by the Senate.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Section 1, page 3, strike out all of lines 39, 40, 41, 42 and 43.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments of the Senate?

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this amendment by the Senate is satisfactory to those who are interested in the bill and I would ask the House to concur. This bill merely applies to the City of Philadelphia, giving the Director of Public Health the right of granting licenses for slaughter houses. There was a provision fixing the date of granting these licenses and the Senate cut that date out, so that licenses may be given any time during the year by the payment of a small fee. This is satisfactory to the Director.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendment of the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1498 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. NEELY offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to.

In the House of Representatives, June 19, 1913.
Resolved (if the Senate concur) That House Bill No. 1498, entitled:

"An Act to amend the eleventh fifteenth and thirty-fourth sections of an act approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five entitled 'An Act regulating the construction maintenance alteration and inspection of buildings and party walls in cities of the second class.'" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend rule No. 24 for the purpose of reconsidering the vote by which House Bill No. 1652, file folio 8103, entitled:

"An Act to amend section twelve of an act entitled 'An Act to provide for the more effectual protection of the public health in the several municipalities of this Commonwealth' approved the eighteenth day of June Anno Domini one thousand eighth undred and ninety-five providing that all principals or other persons in charge of schools are hereby required to refuse admission to any child to the school or schools under their charge or supervision except upon a certificate signed by a physician legally qualified to practice medicine setting forth that such child has been successfully vaccinated or that it has previously had smallpox whenever for a period of twenty-one days after the health authorities of the city borough township or municipality within which such school or schools are located or the State Commissioner of Health shall have given written or printed notice to the said principals or other persons in charge of schools as aforesaid that small pox (variola or varioloid) exists within dangerous proximity to such school or schools said notice to contain the name and location of the person or persons afflicted with the disease and said notice to be renewable so long as small pox (variola or varioloid) continues to exist within dangerous proximity to such school or schools and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act failed on final passage on May 28th last. This is the Ambler Bill known as the Anti-vaccination Bill, not exactly the Anti-vaccination Bill, but a bill not to compel school children to be vaccinated. I voted against the bill when it was under consideration, not understanding the provisions of the bill, and I make this motion.

Mr. LIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the yeas seem to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for, 75 voting in the affirmative and 29 in the negative and the motion was agreed to.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill (House Bill No. 1652) failed on final passage be reconsidered.

Mr. LIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the yeas seem to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for, 64 voting in the affirmative and 45 in the negative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. E. E. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. JOHN R. K SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 53.

Mr. PEACHY asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up resolution No. 53, which was read as follows:

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

Whereas Some one has said "Let me write the songs of the Nation and I care not who makes her laws" and

Whereas There have been offered as official songs of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania three compositions one by Edgar M. Dilley of Philadelphia one by John E Barrett of Scranton and another by Arthur H Haskins of Reynoldsville and

Whereas The State of Pennsylvania commends and appreciates the best in song and sentiment as in all things else therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the song entitled "Pennsylvania" composed and sung by a Pennsylvania farm boy Professor J W Yoder of Juniata College Huntingdon formerly of Belleville Mifflin county Pennsylvania be and the same is hereby declared and adopted as official State song of Pennsylvania

Song as follows

"PENNSYLVANIA"

- 1 Pennsylvania forever Wonderful Keystone State
Beautiful rugged glorious Heaven did thee create
Verdure Clad hills and mountains
Rich with abundant store
Tower in grandeur silent
Praising thee evermore

Chorus

Pennsylvania dear and grand
Pennsylvania my own land
Endless praise we give to thee
Service valor and loyalty
Freedom honor and peace for Pennsylvania

- 2 Pennsylvania my home land
Strudy thy sons of old
Valley Forge tells the struggle
Fighting against hunger and cold
Gettysburg cries to the millions
Freedom from bondage sore
Dear is old Philadelphia
Brotherly love of yours

Chorus

- 3 Pennsylvania beloved
Father of liberty
Keep thou in sacred nearness
Keep us in unity
Guide us in truth and protect us
Teach us forever to be Loyal to Pennsylvania
State of of the valiant free

On the question,

Will the House agree to the adoption of the Resolution.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would request that this song be sung by the gentleman from Mifflin, Mr. Peachey.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Mifflin permit himself to be interrogated in this manner?

Mr. PEACHEY. Mr. Speaker, as I cannot carry a tune unless I have it in a basket, I am not prepared to sing. I have been waiting for some time to have the other resolutions called up, but the songs and the songsters and the people who introduced the resolutions are asleep. Now I think this song is better than the rest of them and for that reason I move its adoption.

Mr. SPANGLER. It seems to me in view of the fact that the song has been composed by the plow-boy professor and in view of the fact that he is willing to come here and sing his song in order that we might judge for ourselves of its merits, I feel that he should be given this opportunity. The resolution starts out by saying: "let me write the songs of the nation, and I care not who makes its laws." It is a very imposing preamble and it would be altogether fitting that this song measure up to it. I feel that the plow-boy professor should have the opportunity of singing his song before this House.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, as we do care who makes the laws of the nation, that ought to be a reason for preventing that gentleman from making the song.

Mr. WILDMAN. In view of the fact that there are so many songs here, I move that they be referred to a special committee.

Mr. GRAMLEY. Mr. Speaker, let us not treat this matter with levity. If we treat this matter at all let us treat it with seriousness. How many of the two hundred and seven members of this House are fully competent to decide which of the songs should be selected for this purpose. I know Professor Yoder personally, and know that he is a good musician. No doubt his song is excellent, but if so, let it come into competition with the other songs before those capable of deciding the question.

Mr. HOBBS. Mr. Speaker, the responsibility to a great extent rest upon me for the introduction of these resolutions for a State song. I introduced into the Legislature a joint resolution for a song to be adopted as a State song for Pennsylvania. I had no knowledge that other songs would be recommended. This song that I introduced was introduced first in the form of a bill. It was referred to the Committee on Education. This Committee for the reason that the gentleman who offered the resolution at this time had introduced a bill or resolution and three others had done the same, and it was thought best not to act upon any one. There should not be any amusement in the action upon this matter, and as has been stated by Mr. Gramley, this is a matter for serious consideration. If a song is to be adopted as a State song, it should be the best one available. It is not for me to decide and it is not for the members of this House to decide until they have had further knowledge of the merits of the various songs reported or requested. Therefore, I believe it is in the interests of the State and for fair play that this resolution be defeated.

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE.

Mr. WILDMAN. Mr. Speaker, I renew my motion to refer this resolution to the Judiciary Special Committee.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 345 was defeated today on final passage be reconsidered.

Mr. SWIFT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The title of the bill will be read for information.

An Act relating to the operation of street passenger railways and providing for the health protection and safety of employees and passengers using cars for the transportation of passengers upon street passenger railway in this Commonwealth fixing a penalty for the violation of the same and providing for the prosecution of violations thereof

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, this is not my bill, I am not the sponsor of it, but I think a number of the members of this House voted against it under a misapprehension. I desire to have it reconsidered for the purpose of offering an amendment which I think will be agreeable to the House and meet the objections of the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill was agreed to on third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. LENKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment?

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendment.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend by adding as Sections 5 the following:
Section 5. This act shall become operative on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and fifteen

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of this amendment? Is there any objection? The Chair hears objection and the amendment will not be inserted?

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. LENKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. WILTBANK. Mr. Speaker, I move now that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. REUBEN HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Mr. J. J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I would rather that this motion be made by some other member from outside of Philadelphia. I presented that bill by request and Philadelphia has equipped all the cars as this bill provides for, but there are other counties in this State that have no such provision. I think that another member, than one from Philadelphia, should ask for the dropping of this bill from the calendar.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I think it is very fitting for Philadelphia to show its generosity and open-hearted spirit for other portions of the State. As it has been done, it does not look as though it came from selfish motives.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the adoption of the motion to strike the bill from the calendar,

Whereupon, a division was called for and 43 gentlemen having voted in the affirmative and 62 in the negative,

The motion was not agreed to.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to add an amendment to the one already proposed and present the two together.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the amendments as follows:

Amend by striking out the second section of the bill.

Also, amend by adding to section five, the following: "Section 5. This action shall not become operative until the first day of January, 1915."

The SPEAKER. Does the House give its unanimous consent to the amendments? Are there any objection?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

BILL RECOMMENDED.

Mr. J. J. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommended to the Committee on Electric Railways.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a motion.

The SPEAKER. The motion will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk then read the motion as follows:

Moved by Mr. Kitts, seconded by Mr. Benson, that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 372, file folio 4959, was defeated on final passage on June 16, 1913, be reconsidered.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the title of the bill.

The Clerk then read the title as follows:

An Act to provide a method for determining the liabilities and rights of persons agreeing to be answerable for the default of another

The SPEAKER. The question is on the motion to reconsider the vote by which this bill was defeated on final passage.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I merely want to state that this is what is called the Guaranteed Surety Business. It is of direct interest to lawyers and indirect interest to everybody, as suggested by Judge Sulzberger, and the original bill was drawn by George Wharton Pepper. It has been amended in the Judiciary General Committee.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. FORSTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, this morning, shortly before adjournment, I made a suggestion, thinking that a "word to the wise" would be sufficient. I now wish to renew my protest along this morning's line. I feel that it is a great injustice to those who are here that a minority of this House should wilfully absent themselves from the business of this House. Personally, I have only lost three hours of the session, since this House convened in January. There many more of us who have made as good or perhaps a better record. The Chair, if I am correct, has not been absent for even one session since January. It does not seem right to me that a minority shall dictate whether or not the business of this Commonwealth shall be properly conducted. Only yesterday, this House by a unanimous vote adopted what I believe was the unanimous report of the Committee on Rules, that we hold a session on Friday. Many of us live at a great distance, I know. My home is four hundred miles from here and I have pressing business at home but feeling that we have a session on Friday, I considered it my duty to be on the floor of this House. There was absolutely not a negative vote on the resolution yesterday. I am about to make a motion which is not made out of resentment nor to let people know that I am here, but I do feel that it is an injustice to those who are here, sitting here perhaps when they would not be here or should not be here had they known that the House would not affectively conduct its business.

MOTION RELATIVE TO THE ATTENDANCE OF MEMBERS.

Mr. Speaker, I therefore, offer the motion:

That the Sergeant-at-Arms of this House be directed to compel the attendance of those who are absent without leave.

Mr. SWIFT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I feel that there are many members in the city here who are not present and who could be present just as well as not and I think that without going out of the limits of the city of Harrisburg, a sufficient number of members could be produced here to carry on the business of this House. There are many bills on the calendar and if they are not acted on today or tomorrow, they are lost. I think the House should insist upon the attendance of those who are absent without leave.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer a substitute to that motion. It is in the same spirit perhaps but might possibly be more effective.

The SPEAKER. The substitute will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the substitute motion as follows:

Resolved, that all members without leave of absence be required to be present at the session of the House at eight o'clock to-night on pain of being in contempt with the House.

The SPEAKER. The motion before the House is that by the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Mitchell, seconded by Mr. Swift, that the Sergeant-at-Arms be directed to require the attendance of all members who are absent without leave.

This would mean their immediate attendance.

Mr. CARSON. Mr. Speaker, I take it that this is too late in the day to go to this trouble. You can do nothing; those members cannot get here anyhow. They are scattered all over the State, and while they are expected to be here, I do not see that there will be much gained by this trouble, only their ill will, and no one, I think, in this House has suffered more inconvenience than I have. This whole session I stayed here week after week.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, while I think the spirit is perfectly proper in this motion, and while undoubtedly the members are needlessly leaving the House and tying up bills when those of us who are anxious to get this business closed up are here, I fear that the motion of the gentleman from Erie is extremely drastic. I have never in my experience here in this House heard of a motion of this character. It is a matter which should lay with the Chair, in which the Chair has given notice before, and such notice should be given now by the Chair publicly. If such a motion as this would prevail, that would be quite sufficient, but for the House now to direct its presiding officer to send its sergeant-at-arms from this building to arrest and take into physical custody the members—that is what this motion means. It means that the sergeant-at-arms is to go and place under arrest the members and bring them before the bar of the House. Now that is a humiliation that I have never known in my experience here for a member to be subjected to. I think the gentleman from Erie is quite proper in his feelings, because it is a great shame that men are staying around Harrisburg here and holding up our business. I think it would be well for the Speaker now to make a public statement notifying the members that we will reconvene here at 8 o'clock. Such a motion as that will be notice to the gentlemen who are still in Harrisburg, some over at the baseball game, and tonight we will have a session and get rid of these appropriation bills. It is quite proper that the Speaker should not allow the appropriation bills to go through without having the full 138 votes. He is quite proper in that position and we should stand by him.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this motion be postponed for the present.

Mr. WILTRANK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, I think the suggestion by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. J. R. K. Scott, is a very good one. We have been here now since the 6th of January. We have tacitly consented to member after member leaving this House and going away and practically no protest has been raised at all. Now to take this drastic position would not be a wise course to take.

Mr. SWIFT. Mr. Speaker, it is a great thing to advocate the idea of mercy, but justice should be administered as well. It seems to me that the time has come, although it never may have come before at this House to take measures to compel those who lightly consider the duties and responsibilities that has been placed upon them by their constituents to be present. It is a good time to fish; it is a good time to sit and see a game of baseball; it is a good time to linger about the park. Possibly we might find enough in the Park on the benches in fifteen minutes to proceed here. We have nearly enough here now, and it seems to me the time has come when something drastic should be done. There has been pleading and there have been warnings. There has been constant admonition from the Chair that the members must be present, and here is a large percentage who have had those admonitions and those warnings and have refused. And it seems to me that we have reached the limit of mercy and should begin to manifest and exercise justice. Therefore, I am in favor of the motion as originally made. I believe that in fifteen minutes we could have this House at work; we have nearly enough now to pass these bills before the adjournment hour comes; therefore I am in favor of the motion as originally made.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, the motion does not confine itself to the immediate precincts of Harrisburg. As I take it this motion would necessitate the Sergeant-at-Arms to arrest the members wherever they might be, and for that reason it seems to me that the motion should be more restricted. If I am in order, I would like to make a motion that the Chair authorize the sergeant-at-arms to notify the absent members to be present tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, could we have an informal roll call to see how many are here? The members just answering present.

The SPEAKER. Undoubtedly; but this motion is pending.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move for the postponement of this motion and call for the yeas and nays.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, it was not my intention by any means that the sergeant-at-arms representing the majesty and sovereignty of the Commonwealth and of this House should go to all ends of this State; to go into sick rooms, and drag people down here to Harrisburg. Like Dr. Swift, I believe justice should be done, but I believe it should be tempered with mercy. I believe there are enough members, as I said before, on the ground and around the city of Harrisburg to enable this House to get down to business. That would be within the discretion of the Chair as to how far the sergeant-at-arms should go. I do not mean anything drastic; to drag men here who are far away would be impossible and infeasible, but I do think that an effort should be made at once to compel the attendance of those who are within the city.

The SPEAKER. The Chair was about to make a suggestion which may be of some value to the House. The Chair is advised by the clerks that during the recess a number of House bills which are not appropriation bills and which were not on the files this morning have been placed thereon, including the general appropriation bill, which of course ought to be acted upon today. That would occupy the House for possibly half an hour. If the Chair were authorized to direct the sergeant-at-arms to proceed to notify any members of the House he can find around the building and around the city, in all probability by the time we are through with those bills there would be enough here to pass the appropriation bills and we might have them passed by 6 o'clock and avoid an evening session. This seems to the Chair a sufficient solution of the situation, but of course it is entirely with the House.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. EHRLHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point.

Mr. EHRLHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I believe the order of business is bills on final passage. The bills are on file. I also believe there is a quorum present to conduct the business of the House. I claim we ought to proceed with the calendar.

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not think that the point of order is well taken. The Chair is of the belief that a quorum of this House has the power to compel the attendance of the other members of the House. The Chair does not deem the present situation to demand any drastic action. The Chair is of the opinion that within half an hour enough members could be found to proceed with business and not arrest them, but direct or notify them to be present and we could proceed.

Does the House give its unanimous consent to the course suggested by the Chair being pursued? The Chair hears no objection and consent is granted.

The Sergeant-at-Arms will find as many members about the building and about the city as possible and notify them that their immediate presence in the House is desired.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, so that the members who are here and have been here may be protected, I move you that a roll call of the members present be taken.

Mr. LOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I don't take it that every member will vote on a bill and I do not want them to have the privilege of dodging a roll call which might prove them present. I do not want to be insistent, but do think we ought to have such a roll call for the protection of such members as are here.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I ask that Representatives Walnut, Humes and John R. Jones be marked present, they having been excused by the Chair on conference committee work.

The SPEAKER. The Chair proposes to have prepared a list of those who are absent with leave and have it put in the Journal in connection with this roll call. It will include the gentlemen who are absent in Fayette County, acting as a special investigating committee and several gentlemen who have leave of absence.

Mr. LEMMER. Mr. Speaker, on returning to my hotel at noon, I was informed that my colleague, Mr. Murphy, had taken sick and went home. Therefore I ask leave of absence for him.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I am not sure whether Mr. Newton secured leave of absence or not, but when I came by the hospital this morning they were taking him to the hospital for treatment for rheumatism.

The SPEAKER. This be entered upon the record.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. Speaker, I secured leave of absence for him yesterday.

The SPEAKER. Leave of absence is extended to him.

Mr. ROCKWELL. Mr. Speaker, in view of the sentiments expressed by the members, I move that the roll call be headed "Roll of Honor."

The SPEAKER. The gentlemen who are absent with leave are the gentlemen from Schuylkill, Mr. John Robert Jones, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walnut, and the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Humes, who have leave to sit in conference committee during the session to-day.

The gentleman from Chester, Mr. Whitaker, the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Berntheisel, the gentleman from Warren, Mr. DeFrees, the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Flynn, and the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Conniff, who are holding a committee meeting in Fayette County in pursuance of the directions of the House.

The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Keepert, the gentleman from York, Mr. H. L. Perry, the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Newton, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Frank Gray, and the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Geiser, as far as the records show, are the gentlemen who have leave of absence.

Mr. ADAMS. Mr. Speaker, I did not hear my colleague's name, Mr. McKay.

The SPEAKER. He has leave of absence this week for the purpose of getting married, and I guess he does not care whether he is on the roll of honor or not.

Mr. SHERWOOD. Mr. Speaker, likewise Mr. McArdle.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McArdle, was given leave of absence in due form yesterday.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Shaffer, of Columbia, was called away on pressing business at noon and I do not know whether he had leave or not. I ask for leave of absence for him for this afternoon and to-morrow.

The SPEAKER. Mr. Shaffer spoke to the Chair about going, but the Chair neglected to ask leave of absence for him.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, on account of the disposition of this House I would like to have every man who is absent receive the same treatment. We have made such a farce of the roll call that I move it be stricken from the record.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is unable to observe such a situation. The situation was hardly described by the gentleman from Cambria.

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, if my recollection serves me correctly, I think the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shern, asked leave of absence.

The result of the roll call was as follows:

PRESENT—130.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, those of us who offered amendments to this bill of course now find ourselves in the position that while the bill is not entirely satisfactory, that it contains matters that are clearly unconstitutional, yet we must vote for it because it is the means of carrying on government, but we do withhold to ourselves the right of calling the House's attention to amendments offered by the Senate which will further burden this bill with appropriations.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. HUMES from the ommittee on Elections, reported as amended, House Bill No. 1588, entitled:

An Act to provide for the election at Fall Primaries delegates to State Conventions for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of Judge of the Supreme and Superior Courts when such office is to filled at a municipal election.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill of some importance, and in order that it may be possible to follow the necessary legislative proceedings, it would eb necessary to pass the bill on first reading to-day in the House, if the Legislature should adjourn on the 26th. I therefore ask unanimous consent to have the bill read the first time.

The SPEAKER. iWILL the House give unanimous consent to the first reading of this bill at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the bill will be read.

BILL ON FIRST READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1588, entitled:

An Act to provide for the election at Fall Primaries delegates to State Conventions for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of Judge of the Supreme and Superior Courts when such office is to be filled at a municipal election.

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1062, as follows:

An Act authorizing and regulating the construction of a bridge over the Susquehanna river at Montgomery borough in Lycoming county and making an appropriation therefor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the State Highway Department is authorized and directed to construct a bridge in Lycoming county over the Susquehanna river from the terminal of Second street in the borough of Montgomery to a public road in Muncy Creek township The cost to the Commonwealth of such bridge shall not exceed sixty thousand dollars ($60,000)

Section 2 To carry out the purpose of this act the sum of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated Payment of the moneys hereby appropriated and the preparation and execution of all contracts shall be subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the Auditor General No part of this appropriation shall be available until it be shown to the satisfaction of the Auditor General that sites for piers abutments and approaches to said bridge have been provided without expense to the Commonwealth and that an additional sum of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) for the construction of said bridge has been secured either by appropriation by the county or private subscription or by both subscription and appropriation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ULMAN. Mr. Speaker, owing to various floods in West Branch Valley some time ago, when water was ten feet in the streets of our city and eight feet in mercantile establishments and everything submerged, all stocks of merchandise destroyed. Steamboats running up and down our main highways, our monetary losses close onto $15,000,000. Can you picture these conditions? Our county is the next largest in area in the State and maintains fifty-eight bridges varying in length from four hundred feet to one thousand feet and with more streams in her domain than any county in the Commonwealth. Many of the streams would commonly be called rivers. County spends forty thousand dollars yearly for building and repairing bridges; bonded debt of the county, $339,800, occasioned by loss of bridges by floods. The assessed valuations $23,700,000. The county has now reached her borrowing capacity within two per cent. of her limit. If this bridge was built by the State at Montgomery Borough, it would be doing as much charity as it would to appropriate money for charitable institutions, as there is a stretch of many miles between Williamsport and Sunbury, about forty miles, with no bridges other than this one mentioned. The present road runs close to the river at this point and then diverges. A bridge at Montgomery would be the key to road construction situation. It would save the building of six miles of macadamized road which would more than pay for the en-the structure. If the bridge were built, it would make a main line of commerce, the present main road leaves the main road of commerce and the bridge would correct that and bring the products of Montgomery Borough in the farming region on the other side of the river closer to markets and lessen the cost of high living. It would not alone be of great value to Lycoming County, but Northumberland County as well, as about forty thousand people would be accommodated by this bridge. Montgomery Borough is a thriving manufacturing town, giving employment to several hundred hands. Many men employed in industries living on the other side of the river, who have no other way of getting to their work must cross the river in ferries and when the river is above normal height, cannot get to their work and many is the time that men were drowned crossing the streams under these conditions. Our county has eighty thousand population and owing to our mountainous condition is sparsely populated. Our county would not ask for State aid if she were in a position to help herself. Northumberland County joins in with Lycoming and asks for this bridge.

Gentlemen, I ask you in the sense of justice and right to support this bill and help suffering humanity.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, I don't want to take up very much of the House's time. I simply want to endorse what my colleague said in regard to this bridge, and so I hope the House will see fit to pass it with a large vote.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, it is also understood that the county is to pay half the cost of this bridge.

Mr. ULMAN. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir. More than one-half. The county pays one hundred thousand dollars.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1733 as follows:

An Act authorizing and regulating the construction of a bridge over the Susquehanna River at Middletown Borough in Dauphin County and making an appropriation therefor

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the State Highway Department is authorized and directed to construct a bridge in Dauphin County over the Susquehanna River from a point in or near the Borough of Middletown opposite the river road in York County to the said river road in York County. The cost to the Commonwealth of such bridge shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000)

Section 2 To carry out the purpose of this act the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated. Payment of the moneys hereby appropriated and the preparation and execution of all contracts shall be subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the Auditor General. No part of this appropriation shall be available until it be shown to the satisfaction of the Auditor General that sites for piers abutments and approaches to said bridge have been provided without expense to the Commonwealth and that an additional sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for the construction of said bridge has been secured by appropriation by the counties or by private subscription or by both subscription and appropriation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass?

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, it is not my intention to burden this House with a long speech. Our people in this community or in the community in which this bridge is supposed to be built, are ten miles away from Harrisburg, and seventeen miles from Columbia. In order to reach the opposite side of the Susquehanna, we are obliged to travel twenty-three miles. That is the only way we have of getting opposite from our own home to York County. We have asked for this bridge in order that we might have conveniences, and not only that we might have them but that a number of counties in this section might enjoy them. In fact, the people who travel throughout the State to such places as Gettysburg and Washington and the city of York from this side of the river, coming from Reading and from Lebanon and the other smaller towns and even from Harrisburg, might have a very much nearer route and a more level route than they have at the present time and a very much shorter route. I am sure that this is by no means a local proposition if this bridge is built. These are some of the inconveniences under the present conditions: Just recently three lives were lost because there was no bridge at that particular place. Within the past three or four weeks, three lives were lost;—sacrificed, right there: People attempted to cross and drowned in the attempt. If I had the time, I could tell you many reasons why we ought to have that bridge. I think one of these bills is about as meritorious as the other. There is one more thing I want to impress upon this House and that is this: There is now being constructed, right where this bridge would cross the Susquehanna, a State road. Work is being done upon it at the present time at Middletown. On the opposite side of the river is another State road that will be constructed and it would be a connecting link between the two great State highways and would be a great convenience to thousands of travelers by teams and automobiles; people working in factories, farmers and all classes of people who live on both sides of the river. I trust, gentlemen, that this bill will pass.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for the verification of the roll.

Whereupon, the roll was verified as follows:

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

Less than the majority required by the Constitution voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 1315, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the trustees of the State Hospital for the Criminal Insane at Fairview Wayne county

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend the title, line 2, by adding after the word "county" the following: "and authorizing the Board of Trustees to perform certain work of construction in connection therewith"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to insert the amendment as read? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment as read will be inserted in accordance with the instruction of the House.

The bill as amended was then agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on third reading of H. R. Bill No. 1303, entitled:

An Act authorizing and regulating the construction of a bridge over the Susquehanna river between Herndon and Port Trevorton and making an appropriation therefor

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker this bill calls for the construction of a bridge across the Susquehanna river between Herndon and Port Trevorton. It further provides that the county pay half and the State the other half. Now, we have no bridge between Clarks Ferry and Sunbury, a distance of forty-two miles. Snyder county does not ask for any appropriation for hospitals or schools, therefore I ask the House to support this bill. We have needed this bridge very much. It would give us a connection with the Reading Railroad as well as with the Northern Central and it gives an outlet for the farmers and those who raise fruit and vegetables.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to be too generous, but I believe that these bills are all meritorious and would ask the House to vote unanimously for this bill.

Mr. NEWBAKER. Mr. Speaker, I am familiar with that section of the State and desire to endorse everything that has been said and it would be a good thing for the country on both sides of the river.

Mr. DONNALLY. Mr. Speaker, I, too, am familiar with the conditions at this place and I heartily endorse what has already been said, and I hope every member will endorse this bill.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, could we not act upon Senate Bill No. 61, at the bottom of page 16?

The SPEAKER. The report of the Board of Charities classes this as a State institution. That may or may not be correct. The title does not give any indication.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, that is the information we got when we were considering this measure, that it was entirely a State institution. We were so informed by the Board of Charities.

The SPEAKER. It would seem to the Chair that the safer course would be to treat it as though it were not a State institution.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this institution is a well known institution. I think most of the members know that it is a large institution on Belmont avenue, right across from the Hayes home.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman from Philadelphia is certain that it is not a private institution we might act upon the bill.

Mr. J. R. K. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I am not sure, but I think it is a charity institution. I have been informed that the Governor appoints the Board of Trustees.

The SPEAKER. There is plenty of time to consider this bill.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not see why we cannot vote on this bill in the ordinary way.

The SPEAKER. It is a matter of conscience on the part of the Chair.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up from page 23 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed, House Bill No. 19.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of H. R. bill No. 19, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the erection of a monument in the borough of Wrightsville Pennsylvania to mark the most eastern point reached by the Confederate Army during the Civil War

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMENDED.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommended to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. FREY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO INVESTIGATION OF LOBBY.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN asked and received unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was read as follows:

Whereas, it has become notorious that a powerful and insidious lobby is working in this Capitol for the defeat or emasculation of the important legislation of this session, legislation which has been demanded by the people of this State in no uncertain tone, and which represents the pledges of three parties and the solemn promises of a great majority of the members of this House; and

Whereas, the influence of this lobby has been sufficient to thus far either cripple or destroy the said legislation; and

Whereas, there is reason to believe that the methods employed by said lobby are such as not to bear the light of day, and it is important that this House should know, amongst other things, at whose expense and for what purpose food and drink are furnished to members of this legislature in certain rooms of this Capitol:

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That the speaker of this House appoint a committee of three members, consisting of one republican, one Democrat and one Progressive, who shall have power to subpoena witnesses and compel the attendance of the same, and to investigate the nature, methods, and personnel of said lobby, and to ascertain the name and interest represented by each and every person who has been or is now engaged either in the city of Harrisburg or this Capitol in advocating or opposing any legislation now pending in either branch of this Legislature, whether such persons are paid for such work, and if paid by whom, and the amount of such payment; that the Sergeant-at-Arms is hereby directed to attend said committee and to serve the subpoena or other process thereof; that said committee is hereby given leave to sit during the sessions of the House, and shall report its findings not later than Wednesday, June 25th, 1913.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of this resolution.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the immediate consideration of the resolution. Is there any objection?

Mr. CARTER. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objections.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the rules of the House be suspended to permit the immediate consideration of this resolution.

Mr. BROSIUS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I move the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. HORACE B. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the legislation to which this House stands committed and to which a majority of the Senate stands committed was passed by the House not days ago but weeks and months ago, some of it away back in February. We all know that instead of that legislation being acted upon on the other side of this Assembly that it has been postponed from time to time; that the Senate has been convening on Monday night and going home on Wednesday morning, instead of giving that legislation the consideration it deserved, and we know now that the prospects are not bright for the passage of any of that legislation, or such of that legislation as has passed the Senate has been passed in such shape that it is practically useless, and some of it has not been passed and probably will not be passed.

Now, everybody knows that certain interests in this State attempt to affect all these bills and maintain a lobby in this Capitol. Everybody knows that the soft coal interests and the hard coal interests have been represented here and that they have held up every mining bill that was introduced in this House and passed the House in the proper committee and in the Senate and when they reached the Senate, we know that the steam railroads are maintaining a lobby in this city; we know that the electric railways and the water companies are maintaining lobbies in this city and practically every interest that is affected by these bills. Now, I have no objection to a lobby in the proper sense of the word. Those interests have a right to be represented here and they have a right to have men here who present their side of these questions. Those men have a right to be heard and these corporations have a right to pay these men if they see fit, but on the other side, we have a right to know what these interests are and who the men are that have been appointed to represent them here in Harrisburg and how much money they get. I am reliably informed that one lobbyist represents extensive interests in this State and is paid fifteen thousand dollars a year for his service here. The very fact that such a sum of money is paid any lobbyist in Harrisburg is a reflection on both the Senate and the House. Everybody knows that in several of the rooms in the other end if this Capitol food and drink are served to members of the Senate and possibly to members of the House, who care to go there, and possibly to anybody else who cares to go there and be served. I want to know, and you want to know and the people want to know who is furnishing that food and drink and who is paying for it; whether by the interests who are seeking to strangle legislation in the Senate or whether it is paid for by the State of Pennsylvania or by whom it is paid for. It seems to me eminently fitting that this resolution should be adopted. This committee, if appointed tonight, can go into session immediately. It can issue its subpoenas; it can bring those lobbyists in here and we can find out the truth, whatever that may be.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire the number of that room.

Mr. SCHUCK. Mr. Speaker, I am entirely in sympathy with the gentleman's motives who has introduced this resolution, if they are based entirely on observations and facts that he has at hand. I feel that such a resolution perhaps, as it sounds, might be found on the last days before adjourning might cast a discredit or reflection upon this entire Legislature. I am satisfied that tomorrow morning a local newspaper, which has never found any good done by this House, will print a story with headlines commenting on the later hours of this Legislature. I fear this resolution is timed for this newspaper, intending to effect this Legislature. I don't feel that we should give any support to this resolution at this time. If this condition exists we certainly knew it before. There is a peculiar reason at this time why this local newspaper wishes to know, which sees no good in the Republican Party, and why they would like to get what is proposed in this resolution.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire how much authority we have for investigating a lunch room of the Senate, and whether it is intended by this resolution to investigate the lunch room of the Senate.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I didn't understand the gentleman from Cameron.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire whether it is the purpose of this resolution to investigate the lunch room of the Senate and whether we have that authority and power.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, it is the purpose of this resolution to investigate any lunch room that may be found in the Capitol building and find out who pays for the lunches that are served there.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know what evidence the gentleman has that there is lunch served there.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I have been told that it has been done.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I don't know anything of that kind, as far as I am concerned.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if we have authority to investigate the lunch rooms of the Senate.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, there is no question about the right of the House to investigate such a matter, absolutely none. A subpoena of this House binds any one upon whom it is served, as long as the House is in session, and they would be obliged to appear before the Committee and testify to what they may know about it. If that lunch room is a proper one and is properly maintained, no criticism can be leveled at the Senate or at anybody else.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I am thoroughly in accord with and will vote for any resolution to investigate our side of the Legislature but I would like to know whether we are voting an insult to the Senate or whether we really have a right to investigate the Senate side of this Legislature. If it has this right or if it is within our rights to do so, then I might vote for it if the resolution just applies to our end of the Legislature. But if the resolution is aimed as an insult to the Senate, then I will not vote for it. I would like to be advised on the question.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, replying to the remarks of the gentleman from Cameron, I will call attention to a resolution passed by this House to investigate the employees of the Senate and House; they were investigated. So we have at least one precedent for this resolution in that respect. Furthermore, the object of the resolution is not to discover whether or not the Senate maintains a lunch room in this Capitol but to discover who pays for that lunch and what effect it has or may have upon legislation that is passed at this session.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, to get an answer on my question, I rise to a point of order:

That this resolution is out of order, because it tends to investigate the private affairs of the Senate and impunes the rights and motives of the Senate to conduct their own business.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would state that outside of the question whether the committee would have any authority to investigate the particular matter referred to by the gentleman from Cameron, there are other matters which would be, without question, within the jurisdiction of the Committee to investigate. Therefore, a point of order cannot be raised against the resolution.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I will ask the Clerk to kindly read that resolution a second time.

(The resolution was again read.)

Mr. CLAYCOMB. Mr. Speaker, in support of this resolution I may say that I am also reliably informed that last evening while the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Miller, was speaking on the floor of this House in regard to the grievance which this House has, that the lobby was busy in this House. Thereby making it all the more apparent that there is some secret, some sulking agency in this House that is trying to stifle the free utterance of the members of this House and throttle progressive legislation. I believe, as a matter of fact, that it is not an open foe here so much who on the highway brandishes his dagger but the man who does his work under cover and in the darkness of the night. That agency has been in this House and has been calling repeatedly on members from the rear end of this House and behind the rail during the whole session. The members of this Legislature are constantly called back of the rail. It is due to this House; it is due to the next House that meets here to throw our protecting arm into the future enough to uncover the conditions as they exist here that proper steps may be taken by the next Legislature to pass such rules as will regulate the lobby properly. I want to support this resolution and I believe the House ought to support it.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, on the adoption of the resolution, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. JOSIAH HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, As I understand the resolution, we are calling names on members of the other House and I don't think that we have any right to call them names because they don't pass our legislation as promptly as we would like to have it pass and the question of importance is, have we a right to investigate, according to that resolution, the work of any lobby in both houses of the Legislature?

The SPEAKER. That is not a question for the Chair to answer. The resolution is clearly in order and that is all the Chair has to do with it.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that it is a little late in the day to begin to investigate the lobbyists around this Capitol. Our session now has almost come to a close. At least we think it has; we expect it has; and most of the work I imagine has been done by those lobbyists. I am not, Mr. Speaker, one of those who fear a man shall come and state his position to me. I am sure, Mr. Speaker, if all the lobbyists in the world come around this rail, I am sure they will never have any influence on me, and I am no different from the rest of this House. If this House has any faith in its ability, honesty, manhood and in its courage, it will not be influenced by any lobbying that is improper. No lobbyist will influence any man with courage, with any manhood, only on what is proper argument and proper reasons and proper grounds. Why should we fear a lobbyist? Men have spoken to me all this session on all kinds of different bills, and I want to say that I would not be afraid to give any conversation that I had. I am sure that they have never stopped me from the way I wanted to vote. It is a little newspaper splurge; that is all it is. And the gentleman from Westmoreland stated the exact truth in my mind. All the papers that are antagonistic tomorrow will have their little splurge, whether this resolution goes through or not. There is a certain element who are satisfied with newspaper notoriety. What is the difference if there are men around here seeking to influence certain legislation? What about those who are complaining about lobbying; against lobbying of this insidious class? Are they complaining about them? What is the difference between lobbying for the labor element, lobbying for the manufacturer, or the capitalist? What if the manufacturer has come here and stated his position? They have a right to be here, the same as the lobbyists for the laboring element.

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, I just want to say that it might not be in good form for any member of the House to vote for this resolution, for the reason that he would be committing a grave breach of hospitality.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, there is some difference of opinion as to whether that inquiry should include those who are lobbying for or simply those who are lobbying against. I think that it should include both sides and I ask that the resolution be read again.

(The Clerk again read the resolution in part.)

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, does that mean that you cannot go outside of Harrisburg? Only those who are here in Harrisburg?

Mr. STONE. Mr. Speaker, a resolution has been introduced in the House by one of its own members in which charges are made by implication that something wrong has occurred. Now, I am not by nature a kicker; I am not by nature a revealer of the secrets of any man or any one man, but it seems to me our duty as representatives of the State of Pennsylvania, when a resolution of this kind has offered, is to acquit ourselves as men and meet the duty. I do not care what the newspapers may have to say. Let them say the truth, whatever the investigation may bring forth. I do not know of any lobbyists who have approached me in this House. Whether they have approached anybody else I do not know. If they have, let us know it. If they have not, let it be published to the credit and honor of those who have come here. In either case, let it be published. I therefore am in favor of this resolution that has been offered.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, it has been said and often said during this session that we have a lobby here. We have both sides represented; we have labor and capital. Now, then, if such is the case, and this lobbying has been going on for such long period, I say it ought to be investigated. It ought to be probed to the bottom. If there is any such lobbying and there is no work done, what have I to fear of any investigation? What has any honest man in this House to fear of any investigation any more than to tell the truth? What does any man care, if he is doing an honest business, what any one says about him? The more light you turn on such a man, the more popular the man gets. I say that this resolution is an infamy upon this House. I say this House should clear its skirts of this report. I say it is an insult to this intelligent body; that it should not go without probing to the bottom of it. If there is nothing to it, there is nothing lost. I am of the honest opinion that there are too many lobbyists in and around this House and I could give some evidence, I believe, that would not be pleasant for some of them. I say, if there has been anything wrong, this House should insist upon knowing it.

Mr. E. G. M. KUHNS. Mr. Speaker, it appears to me that we are trying to take hold of something that may be a little too far reaching. When we talk about lobbying, where does that start? What is the difference when you receive a letter from one of your constituents asking you to vote for or against a bill? If that is not lobbying, neither is it lobbying when one of your constituents comes up here on the floor of this House and speaks to you, because you all know that writing is just a different way of communication. Now, if we at this time want to adopt the resolution and want to investigate all this lobbying throughout the State of Pennsylvania what are we doing? Are we going to close the doors and stop our constituents from coming here? Our constituents throughout this Commonwealth of ours? What are we trying to do? Who are we going to investigate? I cannot see anything wrong in lobbying. You stood here, a great many of you, on the floor of this House during this session, and said that the people shall rule, we shall not take away the peoples' rights; and what are we trying to do here? Stop lobbying? Shut up everybody at home and keep them away? Act as though we were going to some secluded place and close the door on everybody in this Commonwealth of ours? That is what you do if you stop lobbying because when you say lobbying you cannot explain to me or anybody else that letter writing is not lobbying. That is what it is. Now, if you want to stop them from lobbying, how are you going to do it? I can go home among my constituents and talk to my constituents and you cannot stop me from doing it. If I want to bring any of my constituents here and want to talk to them, I will do it, and if you want to call that lobbying, call it so, if you please, but you cannot stop it. You can investigate all you want, but the results will be naught.

Mr. SHUCK. Mr. Speaker, if we are to take this resolution up clearly and sincerely, I feel the question should be divided, if we are going to investigate lobbying. It appears very late in the session to begin with it. If we are going to investigate it, that is another question. What I meant to say was that this resolution made certain inferences which would be taken up by the newspapers on the ground of the last part of this resolution which refers to drinking. I am opposed myself to the members of this House being held up to the State as drinking men. I have been here three sessions and I have seen less drinking by one hundred per cent. than I ever saw before. This is a comparatively temperate body of members. I feel that it is wrong to consider the resolution and impugn the reputation and character of every member. Perhaps there are a few members who choose by their own habits to imbibe when they care to. If that is the case, they should not be lifted up to censure. For this reason, to get at this one point and to satisfy an alleged newspaper story, the question should be divided. Inasmuch as the gentleman from Beaver has not replied to my inference, I would like to interrogate him.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. SCHUCK. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman if he knows anything about a newspaper representative being in the Capitol to-day hunting up skeletons?

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I do not.

Mr. SCHUCK. Mr. Speaker, I have been reliably informed that this feature has been worked up here to-day. As he has been reliably informed to-day that there is a lunch room here, I think this question should be divided if it is to be considered seriously, because we do not want to be held up over this State as a bunch of drinking men.

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, this resolution says nothing about the character of the drinks served. What they are, as a matter of fact, I do not know. The resolution speaks of "food and drink" and the gentleman from Westmoreland seems to assume that the sort of drink referred to is intoxicating drink. I gather that from what he has said.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. G. A. Baldwin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. Certainly.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether the gentleman from Beaver of his own knowledge can say to the House that he has seen anything occur in this House that would lead him to believe there was any illegal action in the way of lobbying?

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. No, sir.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, then I do not see why the gentleman offered the resolution, if he has no knowledge of his own and has received no information from anyone else. I would like to know if anybody has informed him to a positive certainty that such can be shown, if such a resolution be passed. Has any such information as that been imparted to the gentleman?

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, illegal lobbying could not be done on the floor of the House. I have been approached by men who have sought to influence me one way or the other on pending legislation. I do not know whether those men were paid to be here or not. I do not know whom they represent, but I have a right to know and the people of this State ought to know.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the question arises in my mind under that resolution whether there has been any lobbying done or not. I can state to the House that I have seen a great many people here soliciting members to vote for legislation. In my mind it was always legally done. I saw a vast number of ladies here using every possible effort in an honorable way to influence members to support certain legislation. I have seen in the House during the early sessions—I guess I can say for months—men connected with labor organizations in this State, a very great number of them importuned me and asked me if I would not support certain legislation. In my mind it was absolutely legally done, not surreptitiously done. I have seen in the House during all the early sessions, I guess I can say for months, on all kinds of bills, representatives from different sections of the State trying to persuade us to vote either for or against legislation. Now if this resolution means that there is a committee must inquire into all of these affairs why I have no objection at all to the resolution, or any objection to any resolution that there is reasonable ground for in the minds of any person here on the floor to ask for; but I realize that it appears to be a foolish thing to start an investigation. I think it is foolish, without some suspicion. I would like any member in the House who has a suspicion that certain occurrences have happened during the session of this House, where any illegal or surreptitious lobbying was carried on—and I want to say that I have not seen any reason to suspicion it—but if there is one here who will say so I think the resolution should pass; but the absence of any information of that kind—I want to say that any member can offer a resolution of this kind and where will we get to—if there is any member willing to say that he seen things occur in this House that he thinks is illegal lobbying, corrupt lobbying, if there is any one member will say that, I will vote for this resolution.

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I will accept that challenge of the gentleman from Delaware. As a member of this House I will take an affidavit before that committee if organized, that I have been approached by representatives of a number of interests to vote for or against certain bills.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, what I meant to say, was illegally approached, approached in a corrupt manner. Corporations send their representatives here to call our attention to legislation. My attention has been called by men connected with corporations and asked to read a bill that they thought was a bad bill or not right. In one or two instances I agreed with them, but mostly I disagreed with them. Now if there is any member in the House can say to the House that he has a knowledge of any members being corruptly approached, I will vote for this resolution. I do not think it is fair to say that it is illegal lobbying for a person to explain a bill to you and ask you to vote for or against it any more than if I called the attention of the House to legislation in a proper way and showed how it will affect you. That is not corrupt lobbying, is it? If that is corrupt lobbying, I do not agree with you.

Mr. ELY. Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to this legislation for the reason that in the beginning it is misleading. It infers that members of this House know of illegal lobbying and have been cognizant of it since the session began. The resolution states that it is notorious that this thing has gone on and the sponsor of the resolution admits that he knows nothing about it. I say, gentlemen, it reflects upon the character and integrity of this body of men, as I view this body. It is my first session. Whatever the sessions may have been before this I care not to say anything about them, but as I view this session, the personnel is as good, if not better, than any that sat in this House before. The character and temperance of this body has been commented upon through the State and by the press and visitors to the House and I think that this resolution reflects upon the character of this body and that is the reason I am opposed to it.

Mr. SWIFT. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that the adoption of this resolution would be our defense. If it be true that there is to be published to-morrow something of a charge against the character of this House or the proceedings of this House, it seems to me it is highly eminent for us to take time by the forelock and if it is true that those things are untrue, for us to put ourselves in a position to be able to reply immediately. I agree with the gentleman from Westmoreland that the character of this House is high, and if it is so, why should we fear this resolution? Further, it seems to me that it is not necessary for us to know all that may exist in order that we begin proceedings. I think there is an investigation going on in the Capital of this Nation to-day that is startling some people. At the beginning our papers and the people were saying it is foolish, but there have been some revelations in that investigation that is shaking things in this country, and if that be true that should be known and if the same condition exists here, things are going on or conducted that ought not to be, we ought, if we are of high character and standing beyond reproach, ought to be able to show to the world that we are not ashamed of investigation and go into the investigation for our defense. It is our only defense. If we defeat this motion to-night and there appears in the paper a charge to-morrow, gentlemen, does it not seem true that we will yield to the charge and be quiet? It seems to me that before a publication is made or a statement, that we ought to be on the defensive and ready to answer that at any moment; and then we do not know but what some things that are intimated in that resolution may be true, and if the character of this House is what it is said to be then we shall be as interested in finding out what is true, whether it strikes us or whether it elevates us. I believe that we as a House are able to defend ourselves, and we cannot defend ourselves any better or stand up any better than by adopting this resolution and putting ourselves in a position where we can defend ourselves and show to this State everywhere that we do not fear an investigation but are ready to defend ourselves or investigate and root out any evil that may exist.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, nothing would be further from my thoughts than to reflect on the character of this House. I dare say that no member of this House has a higher regard for the honor and the integrity of his colleagues than do I. This resolution will not bear the interpretation that is placed upon it by the gentleman from Westmoreland, for it recites that this legislation, the holding of which I complained about, passed the House. The interests, if there have been any, have sought to destroy that legislation were not successful in the House, for as I said before it passed the House not several days ago, but weeks or months ago. It seems to me that the House has already cleaned its skirts.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. I fully appreciate that if this resolution passes whoever happens to be appointed members of that committee have placed in their hands a task that undoubtedly cannot be properly carried out short of probably a month of almost steady work. We have a knowledge of men who have been here lobbying from the different ends of the State, in fact, the four corners of the State, that that committee should subpoena, because if they have been here lobbying—that is a broad word—it seems to me if the resolution is going to pass it ought to contain some provision that will enable the committee to make its report in full. It ought to have something contained in there that will give it power to make the report and to cover the subject fully and have the report published. This commission should have some means for carrying out the provisions of the resolution. Now, if we are going to do this, let us do it in the right way. Let us be fair and see that the committee is given the necessary powers and let the resolution carry some of the means that are always necessary to carry on these investigations. I think that the gentleman ought to withdraw the resolution, or wait a little until something can be incorporated that will give some power. We cannot work without money. There should be funds provided to employ a stenographer to take the notes. You have only a few days to do the work that is necessary to be done, whereas it will be necessary for the committee to work for weeks and probably for months investigating this proposition. If it is not carried out fully and thoroughly then that committee will be most seriously hampered. I see where we are opening a big proposition and it cannot be done without any money, and there is not a member in the House but knows that. I think the gentleman from Beaver will admit that the resolution to carry on the investigation is only half drawn.

Mr. GEORGE BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Delaware, I want to say that when we meet next week if the House saw fit to continue the committee and its powers the House can do so.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, this afternoon we had practically adjourned and had a poll of the House and we came here to-night to finish up our work and why not go to a vote on this thing and finish it.

Mr. ELY. Mr. Speaker, just a word. The wording of that resolution impugns the record of this House, inasmuch as that to vote in the affirmative gives to the public the idea that it is notorious that the members of this House had known of these things going on, and I oppose it for that reason, and I hope the members will vote it down. If there is any stigma on this House it should be on those who are seeking notoriety in presenting such resolutions.

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the resolution adopted.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE LOBBY.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will appoint in pursuance with the resolution just adopted by the House the gentleman from Beaver Mr. George A. Baldwin, the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. R. J. Baldwin, and the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Claycomb.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. RONEY. Mr. Speaker, I cannot imagine any question of personal privilege that is more important than the reputation and integrity and honesty of the members of this House and at this time, Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that the close of the session is but a week off, I would ask in justice to each and every member of this House that this Committee go to work immediately; that the Chair provide them with any number of sergeants-at-arms that the work may be proceeded with dispatch; also that the House Caucus Room or some other convenient place be put at the disposition of this committee in order that some final report be made to this House by next Thursday. Mr. Speaker, I make this suggestion at this time because I feel that there are a number of members on the floor of this House who felt in their own hearts that there was nothing particular in so far as they were aware to be investigated, but it was good legislative policy, as the gentleman from Beaver stated, to have the investigation in order that these charges however trivial and substantial they are at this time may be totally and wholly disproven, and in this connection, Mr. Speaker, I am glad to have voted for the resolution, but I would consider my vote for this resolution and the vote of every member of this House an absolute mockery unless the members of this Committee should consider the obligation that they are under to this House and proceed with dispatch in order that some final report may be brought into this House before Wednesday, because we would leave a blotch of mud against the fair name of this House if this committee were to come in some report that contained only rumors of charges that were not made and substantiated by evidence. I therefore suggest Mr. Speaker, that a number of stenographers be provided and no expense be spared and that all the testimony that can possibly be gotten together for the information of the House be provided so that on next Wednesday or Thursday there should be some complete report in order that the reputation of this House, if it is good, and every one knows that it is, may be sustained, and if there is anything good in the Senate, it should come out, and if there is anything bad in the Senate it should come out. In all events, so that these charges at this time affecting the reputation of this legislative body may be fairly met so that we may go home to our families and carry with us a complete report vindicating the reputation of this House.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I think the committee would appreciate it if each and every member of this House who has the slightest information will come forward as soon as possible and give to the Committee any information whatever that will bear upon this subject, the time being short. I think I am voicing the opinions of all of the members of this committee when I make that request of the House. I think it is the voice of the committee that each and every member should come voluntarily without being sent for with any information whatever that they may have bearing on this subject, for I know that so far as I am concerned, I would like to get it as soon as possible.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that so far as the sergeants-at-arms and stenographers or anything else that the committee may need are concerned, that everything they may require in that particular will be put at their disposal at once.

Mr. GEORGE C. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, in order that the House may be set right, I believe the resolution called for the appointment of one Democrat.

The SPEAKER. The resolution called for one Progressive, and the Chair appointed the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. George A. Baldwin; the resolution called for one Republican, and the Chair felt confident in appointing the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. R. J. Baldwin, and it also called for the appointment of one Democrat and the Chair appointed the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Claycomb, from the Democratic side.

POINT OF INFORMATION.

Mr. GEORGE C. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point.

Mr. GEORGE C. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know how the Speaker judges the politics of a member.

The SPEAKER. The Chair, for instance, judges a Democrat because the Democrats are on one side of the House, and the Chair has, from the experience of the last five months, formed a firm conviction that the gentleman from Delaware is a Republican, and that the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Baldwin, equally with Mr. Swift, like all the other members of the House, is Progressive.

Mr. GEORGE C. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Claycomb, who has been appointed on that committee.

The SPEAKER. The Chair doubts whether that is in order.

Mr. GEORGE C. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, I have my reasons for that. I don't want to make any correction of the Chair but I would like to secure this information for the House.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Claycomb, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CLAYCOMB. Mr. Speaker, I have nothing to say.

Mr. GEORGE C. IRWIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Claycomb, on what ticket he was elected?

Mr. CLAYCOMB. Mr. Speaker, on the Washington-Key-stone ticket.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say that my experience on this side of the House is that we will take care to say that he is a Democrat.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question.

Mr. S. B. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, what is a Democrat?

The SPEAKER. That is a question the Chair would not for one moment attempt to answer in this day.

Mr. MATT. Mr. Speaker, a good citizen.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire whether the gentleman from Philadelphia considers himself competent to pass upon the political affiliations of his own party, to say nothing of the affiliations of his own side of the House.

The SPEAKER. The question is out of order, because it is a well known fact that the gentleman from Philadelphia is a man without a party.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE.

Mr. KITTS asked and obtained leave of absence for himself for to-morrow.

Mr. JOHN R. K. SCOTT asked and obtained leave of absence for himself for tomorrow.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I ask leave of absence for the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Gransback and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Curry.

Mr. Gransback was taken ill and Mr. Curry accompanied him to his home.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objections and leave is granted.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. DONNALLY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn.

Mr. WALNUT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to and at 10:05 o'clock P. M. the House adjourned to meet tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

While we remember our weaknesses we come to Thee asking that Thou wilt be our strength, our wisdom and our guide. May we so trust Thee, so abide in Thee that we shall be conscious of Thy presence. May we enjoy the fullness of that fellowship which leads us in the right ways, strengthens us in doing the things that Thou wouldst have us do. Help us to remember that Thy claims are upon us, and that we shall answer again for our doing day by day. An Act making an appropriation for the education of blind children under eight years of age

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, this is a very short bill, only a matter of some six lines. I will read it:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated for the education of blind children under eight years of age Said moneys shall be paid on order of the Superintendent of Public Instruction on warrant of the Auditor General

This bill may be all right, but it seems to me that it ought to suggest some class of an institution to which these children would be sent, so that those institutions may be able to collect. I may be wrong on that.

I understand that is the purpose, although I don't know whether or not it is so, under that sweeping provision. So in case the Superintendent of Public Instruction would be able to do this, that or any other thing, and that must be under certain regulations. To me it seems as though there should be an additional section added, saying what kind of institution he was to be sent to.

Mr. C. M. C. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, that bill was before the Educational Committee and about forty children come under that provision. There is no institution in this State and there is but one in New Jersey who take care of children of that kind. I suggested to the lady that brought that bill before our committee that the blind institutions of this State should receive them and make some provision for teaching them. Children who come under the age of eight years are not taken into the blind homes, but with this bill they could be taken in this home and the teachers provided. I say that there would be no other place to get them in and we should take them and do the work that is required. I don't think that it is necessary to send that bill back to the committee.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my suggestion. It was only a suggestion I made.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understood that the object of the gentleman was to make the bill more effective.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, I notice in the North American of this morning that my colleague, Mr. Conniff, is reported as being recorded as voting against the resolution to investigate the lobby. It is a mistake of the representative of the North American, and I ask that the correction be made.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Luzerne was absent yesterday in Fayette with the special committee as directed by the House. The Chair has no doubt that the correction will be made gladly, not by the Clerk of the House, but by the representative of the journal known as the North American.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question.

Mr. JOSEPH GRAY. Mr. Speaker, one of the members of the House this morning called my attention to a little statement in the Philadelphia North American, as follows: It says, in reference to the vote on the resolution which was up for discussion last night:

Few Vote Against It

The only members of the house to vote against the resolution were A. P. Conniff, Luzerne; J. F. Ely, Westmoreland; E. E. Jones, Susquehanna county; Eugene J. McAleer, Philadelphia; Carey L. Shuck, Westmoreland, and J. W. Stone, Bradford county.

In addition to these the resolution was opposed by members who urged others to oppose, but did not do so themselves when the roll was called. Among these were Joseph Gray, reactionary Democrat, of Cambria county.

and mentions others. I have no complaint, Mr. Speaker, with the names that they call me, but they might at least state the truth. I do not know, Mr. Speaker, but I suppose it is beyond the province of the North American and its reporters here to understand the truth. The reason why I rise to this question of personal privilege is because there are aristocratic constituents of mine who read the North American, and I don't know whether it is asking too much to ask the North American to make this correction, but I suppose it is asking a little too much, and that a person should not expect them and their reporters to have the moral courage to tell the truth about any man. I voted, as the Record will show, against that resolution.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration of third reading of H. R. bill No. 1965 (Senate Bill No. 878), entitled:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BLELOCH. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Section 2, line 30, by striking out the word "such" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "each."

Section 3, line 42, by striking out the words "cost units" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "unit costs."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to insert the amendments as read? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments as read will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. HUMES. Mr. Speaker, I find a bill (House Bill No. 1588) that has passed second reading here this morning, that was reported out of Committee yesterday and because of the fact that the calendar was not here I did not have my attention called to it to prepare amendments which are absolutely essential if this bill is to become a law. It is a bill which provides for the election of Superior Court Judges this Fall, and in order that some corrections may be made, I move that the vote by which this bill was directed to be transcribed for third reading, be reconsidered.

As a Committee of Conference on the part of the House, the Chair appoints the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Walnut, the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Lenker, and the gentleman from Bedford, Mr. Matt.

NOTICE OF MEETING OF LOBBY INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, we will suspend for about ten minutes to permit a statement on behalf of the investigating committee appointed last night.

The gentleman from Beaver, Mr. George A. Baldwin.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, the committee met this morning and would notify any member of the House to appear before the committee to give us facts relative to the objects and purposes of this investigation. The committee, it seems, is not a committee to investigate either the House or the Senate, but it is confined to look into the scope of the resolution, to wit: To ascertain the methods and practices of those who come here to oppose or advocate legislation. All we want from members of the House is any information that they may have; any names of persons that may have bearing on this subject ever since the beginning of the session, who have approached members for their votes either against or for any bill. The committee will meet at two o'clock and would be glad to have as many as possible present in the Ways and Means Committee Room, No. 523.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, as a matter of inquiry, I would like to know whether that embodies any one who has asked you to support or oppose or advocate anything or any bill? Does that mean those who have continuously hounded you from Monday morning until Saturday, not only here but at home or on the way back and forth from home on trains or anywhere else, in relation to a bill? The reason I ask that is that during the early part of the session, at least toward the middle of the session, when we were quite active here, when there were quite a number of important matters before the House, my average was about fifty letters a day. If I had but little concern in the people who wrote in relation to these matters, I glanced at the matter and if I didn't have any special interest in it, it went into the waste basket. No doubt if it was from some one for whom I had some deep consideration, or if it was an acquaintance, however slight, I would read the letters. I know that on the trains going back and forth from home members have asked me in relation to my position on a bill and perhaps I knew nothing about it. Then I might recall the general provisions of the bill and have opinions for or against it. I have been solicited about this House in relation to my position on bills by many persons about this building and if we were to take that as a guide of information to be given to this committee, I think I would have to start with certain departments on the Hill and get a muster roll of that department and get the names. I think it was all done in fairness. There have been people here whose faces I know; I see them every day; they are so attached to this House that they are looked upon as fixtures and you would not be fairly at home if you did not see them. I don't suppose that it is such information as this that the committee wants. That is absurd on the face of it. If I had reserved all the solicitations that have been made to me by these various people, I think I might perhaps give the committee, or would be able to give the committee, from fifteen hundred to twenty-five hundred names. I could not now tell who they are or where they could be found. Their letter heads might show. If I had only taken the names of the people who have seen me here I would have had to have a clerk. I don't believe that is the information that the committee wants, although if the suggestion is made that it refers to such matters where undue influence were attempted or where bribes were offered or suggested or where immunities might be offered—things that are illegal—I think the great majority can give no testimony. I know as one member of this House, speaking for myself, I can go home without consulting further with the committee.

Mr. GEORGE A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, it is obviously impossible for this committee to secure the attendance of every person who has been here lobbying for or against the bill. Members will have to be guided by common sense. The committee would like to know and have the names of those who have been here continuously or frequently. We have a number of bills on which there has been lobbying for or against and we would like to know about those who have been here advocating for or against such bills. We would like to know who has been advocating for or against the public Utilities Bill—those who have been here continuously advocating or opposing that measure; also the railroad bills; also the mining bills. We would like to know the names of those who have been here continuously advocating or opposing that legislation. We have had some lobbying on liquor legislation and would like to know the names of those who have been here frequently or continuously advocating that particular class of legislation. It is obviously impossible for the committee to secure the names of those who came down here to ask members to support a little hospital bill or some other bill of like importance and ask them to come here and testify to that effect. Members will have to be guided by their own common sense.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, I hope the question of defining this resolution will not be left at this late hour to the committee. At least, for me as one of the members of that committee, the resolution stands for itself. To ask the committee to now define that resolution, seems to be placing on the committee a proposition that is not fair. We can all read the language contained in that resolution and it stands for itself. The committee is going to use good common sense and not make itself ridiculous. The resolution, as I said last night, was of a character and I think to carry out its provisions as that language appears to indicate to me, it would require a long while. At the time I was very anxious to see the resolution better and more definitely shaped up. I have been placed in the position of performing a duty thrust upon me by that resolution and perhaps my judgment of it will clash with my colleagues of the committee. However, it is not defined. It should be so defined and so broad that it might apply to any piece of alleged illegal legislation that any member has a knowledge. If any one came here to Harrisburg to advocate or oppose illegal legislation, as being within the scope of the resolution. I hope the House will not place at least upon me the necessity of being responsible for the defining of that resolution. My definition, that I have in my own mind, as it is I think in the mind of every member of the House, is very broad and very sweeping and if not fully carried out by the committee I realize that I ought to be censured as a member of the committee.

Mr. STONE. Mr. Speaker, as one of the members of this House investigating under this resolution, I voice the sentiments of the gentleman from Delaware, but I would go a little bit further than that. I would not favor any white-washing if there have been any corrupt methods used in this House. I have no knowledge of any, but I do believe that this Committee should get the names of all the persons who have been lobbying in this House and ask them what influence they have used and what their efforts have been towards influencing legislation. Now, Mr. Speaker, it has been my feeling as a new member of this House that legislation has been interfered with, possibly with honest purposes. I do not believe this should be allowed in this House. I believe that every member of this House has looked carefully into the bills and were able to decide for themselves what is right and what the people of this Commonwealth demand of them. After this investigation is had, if it appears that some persons, whatever their motives may have been, however good they may have been, had a decided tendency to block legislation and to influence the good, sober sense and judgment of this House, I believe it should be cut out. I do hope, Mr. Speaker, that this Committee will go so far with its investigation that they shall be able to report to the House to what extent lobbying has been carried on in this House so that we may know how to act hereafter.

Mr. McALEER. Mr. Speaker, I have heard it said that it was possible that this committee might ask the members of the House to appear before it, taking them in alphabetical order and having them state what they might know. As the committee is to sit at 2 o'clock and many of the members of the House are not here, I would ask that the members who are here be allowed to go there voluntarily and have their names passed over and checked off, so that they will not be called upon again at some future time.

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, it is the intention of the Committee to treat all members of the House alike. Those who are not here this afternoon will be given an opportunity on Monday and be asked to be there.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would suggest that if the committee would sit from 12 o'clock to 1, they could get quite a start in the matter.

Mr. G. A. BALDWIN. The Committee will sit tomorrow if necessary. If the members go home and do not return until Monday, there will be no occasion to sit tomorrow, provided we can hear those who desire to be heard this afternoon.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. J. H. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I see by the North American of today that I am marked as absent without leave yesterday. I was here and voted on bills that were called yesterday and they have me marked as one of the members that obstructed legislation by being absent. I have only missed two sessions of the Legislature this winter.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has no doubt the press will be glad to correct any injustice done to the gentleman.

TIME EXTENDED FOR CONSIDERATION OF BILL.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, on account of the sudden termination of the deliberations of this body this morning, I move that House Bill No. 101, bills on second reading postponed for the present, be allowed to stand on the calendar until Monday night.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will direct that House Bill No. 101, on the, second reading postponed calendar have its time on the postponed calendar extended until Monday night. The Chair hears no objection and it is so ordered.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. LETZKUS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to and (at 11:55 o'clock A. M.) the House adjourned to meet Monday, June 23rd, at 8 o'clock P. M.

JOHN K. TENER.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. JUDSON. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Washington, Mr. Judson, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. JUDSON. Mr. President, on last Thursday night the Senate passed an appropriation favoring Washington and Jefferson College. On Wednesday while I was away from home attending a convention of this same College the following telegram was sent to the members of the House:

"Pittsburgh, Pa., June 18, 1913.

To the Members of the House of Representatives, care of The Speaker, Harrisburg, Pa.

We are informed that a bill is pending to give State funds to Washington and Jefferson College. We as Trustees of the College address you in its name and on its behalf, and earnestly urge you to vote against any such bill.

JOHN M. KENNEDY,
M. W. ACHESON, Jr."

I think I owe it to myself and to the loyal support which the Senate gave me on this bill to put myself right as to this bill in presenting it. Sometime prior to the time this bill was presented, while at home, I was consulted with reference to the advisability of presenting this bill, and advised against it. Later I was importuned to present the bill and finally did present it. And when I presented this bill I did it in good faith, believing that the Trustees, or at least the local Trustees, and I know that many of the personal friends and those connected with the College, not trustees, were in favor of the appropriation. And when I was out there on last Wednesday afternoon, attending this convention, several persons of the people interested in the College and professors in the College expressed their gratification that the bill had been presented and hoped that it would pass. Now if the Trustees or those who were opposed to this bill had exercised ordinary courtesy or common decency they ought to have written to me to withdraw the bill and not allow it to progress through the Senate to the extent it had and go over to the House. The President of the Board of Trustees himself told me on last Friday he had favored this bill and I think in justification to myself and the loyalty the members of the Senate have given me in this bill, that this explanation is necessary. In addition to that it has been intimated that someone was playing politics. I want to say to the members of this Senate that I would not betray what confidence and respect they have for me, to introduce a bill of this kind and have it go over to the House and when the opportune time arrived allow it to be withdrawn or fall for the privilege or for the chance of playing politics against the House. I will play politics, but I will play it fairly, honestly and squarely with the members with whom I am associated and I would not take advantage of their friendship and kindness to put a bill through this Senate in order to put them in a hole. I think we ought to have had notice that these trustees did not want the bill and according to the statement of my colleagues in the House who presented a similar bill at the same time he stated that he consulted the President of the College and it met with his approval. I think in view of the situation and the action of the Board of Trustees and the individual members that I owe it to myself that I make this explanation and that I put myself right with the members of the Senate.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE FINANCE COMMITTEE FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL NO. 383.

Mr. HILTON. Mr. President, I move that the Committee on Finance be discharged from the further consideration of Senate Bill No. 1283 (House Bill No. 383), known as the "Equalization of Taxation Bill" and that the same be placed on the calendar and read the first time at to-night's session.

Mr. MILLS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HILTON. Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate. In offering this motion to discharge the Committee on Finance I am not offering it with any complaint against the Chairman of that committee, or any member of that committee, but from the fact that this bill has been in the Committee on Finance since April 30th and at this late hour it has not been reported upon the calendar it is pretty strong evidence that that committee does not intend to report that bill out of committee. If his bill were a bill of little importance, I would not offer the motion at this time, but from the fact that this bill calls for an equalization of taxes, one of the great progressive issues of the day, I believe it is our duty to try to discharge the Committee on Finance from the further consideration of this bill and have it placed upon the calendar and enacted into a law. No one act has passed this State Legislature for years that can do greater good and accomplish greater advancement to the State of Pennsylvania than the passage of this act, which places the rich and the poor upon the same basis of taxation. This bill calls for all property now subject to taxation to be taxed according to its actual valuation and in order to get at this on the most economical basis, the bill calls for a tax commission to be first appointed and then elected to place a valuation upon the property for the purpose of taxation. The Grangers have made a great issue on equalization of taxation for many years, because they realize the unreasonable amount of taxes they as the small property tax payers were paying compared with the big corporations of the State. They also realize they were under the same tax system for over forty years and in all this time the public utilities companies of the State of Pennsylvania did not pay anything for local taxation. The Auditor General's report shows for the year 1911, according to the sworn statement of the owners of property themselves, that they have nine billion dollars of personal and corporate tax property in this State and that they only paid a little over two mills on the dollar, while the balance of the property subject to taxation, amounting to over four billion dollars, paid a little over twenty mills on the dollar. Is this just? Is this reasonable? Is this right? To make over four billion dollars of the property of the small owners pay twenty mills on the dollar and nine billions dollars of property pay only two mills on the dollar? While riding from my home the other day to Harrisburg on a Pullman car the thought occurred to me what a great amount of money the Pullman Car Company had made not only in this State, but other States. As far as any records I can find show, the Pullman Car Company did not pay any State or local tax. I may be mistaken about this, and in order to be fair with the Pullman Company I will class them with every other company that they are only paying a little over two mills on the dollar and at the same time while riding in this car and realizing this small amount they are paying, I could look out of the window and see the farmers working at hard work for a small amount, a class of people who are paying twenty mills on the dollar every year when the Pullman Car Company, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and other public utilities companies are only paying a little over two mills on the dollar. Now this is unfair and this bill will remedy that unjust system. If we pass this act we can help the farmer and other property owners and cut their taxes in two and instead of asking them to pay twenty mills on the dollar ask them to only pay ten mills on the dollar, and at the same time make them pay as much as anybody else and raise as much money as we pay under our present system and yet put into the State Treasury every year in addition to that enough money to build all the highways and roads that can be built under the Highway Commissioner that it is possible to build each year and pay for them. We can do more than that. If we were to keep the farmers and small taxpayers where they are and make them pay twenty mills on the dollar and compel the big property owners to pay twenty mills on the dollar we can raise as much money as we are raising at the present time and place enough in the State Treasury in eight months only to build eight thousand miles under the Sproul Highway Act. Now this does not look possible, but with nine billion dollars sworn to by the owners of property themselves, which must be true because the owners of property who swear to valuations for taxation may sometimes make it too low are never in danger of getting it too high, so that instead of getting a high valuation we have a small valuation. Now this Tax Commission according to this Act is instructed to try and get the actual valuation of the property to consider the cost, to consider the life of that investment, to consider the actual profits of that invest-vestment and use their best judgment and try to get at the actual valuation of that property. Now was there ever a time when an act of this kind was more necessary than at the present time. Two years ago we passed the Sproul Highway Act to build eight thousand miles of road through every county in this State, yet the problem has been ever since how to get money enough to carry out that act. Now the only act that we have before us at the present time that amounts to very much in raising money to carry out that act is the passing of a bond issue at the next fall election and there is some doubt about that. We will say that the people are going to pass this act and going to raise fifty million dollars. We even then have not half of what it takes to carry out that act.

If we pass this law we do not have to bother with any bond issue. All we have to do is to pass this act and put every body on an equal basis if it is only ten mills on the dollar and then raise enough to carry out this act. I hope that the members will place this bill upon the Calendar and if we place this bill upon the Calendar we have a splendid revenue raiser and all difficulties about having the eight thousand miles built under the Sproul Highway Act as soon as possible have been overcome.

Mr. SPROUL. Mr. President, I hope that the motion of the Senator from McKean, Mr. Hilton, will not prevail. This is, as he states, a very important bill. It is a bill which would change in one act the entire tax system of the State and would do away with the present system from beginning to end. The Finance Committee has very carefully considered this bill—in fact the Revenue Tax Commission which has been for four years studying the taxation system of Pennsylvania has been studying this matter most closely, and has not yet found itself able to devise a system that would accomplish such radical changes as the gentleman from McKean suggests. The Revenue Commission did not think itself ready to make a report on so comprehending a matter after four years of study and the Finance Committee of the Senate after giving this bill a great deal of consideration—a great deal of careful consideration—has not been able to make up its mind to report the bill favorably and at the same time did not desire to go on record by negating the bill at the present time. I hope that the motion will not prevail, as the committee is not ready to make a report on the matter.

Mr. HILTON. Mr. President, I would like to further state that the taxation commission simply amounts to this. This is the law in the State of Ohio at the present time. While the public utility companies in this State pay no local taxation yet they do in the State of New York. We have a local road running twenty miles in our Senatorial district, Potter County, and twenty-seven miles in the State of New York. Last year the twenty-seven miles in New York paid over twenty-seven hundred dollars of taxes and the twenty-nine miles running through Pennsylvania only paid a little over four hundred dollars. Now in Potter County, where these twenty-nine miles run we paid last year twenty-five mills on the dollar taxation and I think we ought to pass this act and try to get more money through local taxation from our public utility companies who are earning good money throughout the State the same as the farmers.

Mr. SHEATZ. Mr. President, in reply to the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Hilton, in reply to this statement about the railroad I would suggest that when the time comes the Auditor General has the supreme power in this matter and the State Treasurer has the same power. It depends upon the Auditor General and I do not see any necessity when it comes to equalizing the taxes of corporations of Pennsylvania that there is any other law necessary than the honest work of the Auditor General.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hilton and Mr. Mills and were as follows, viz:

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, before the Senate votes on this bill I would like to explain what the bill means. I rode over this parkway to-day on my way to a funeral in the neighborhood and after the city of Philadelphia spent eight millions of dollars building this parkway, and they are due to spend two or three million dollars more, if this bill passes all the back sheds and back buildings that are now there will remain there. The amendment to this bill does mean anything except that now the city of Philadelphia is able to buy all those old properties and tear them down and clear up the different plots. Suppose the city takes one of those properties with an old back building on it and then didn't use it. It reverts back to the owner, they could not sell it to some one who could not improve it, and that would send it back to the original owners and there is no way in the world of compelling the owner to make the proper improvements on that plot of ground in keeping the splendid parkway which cost from eight to ten million dollars. I have no personal interest in this matter but it seems to me that some of the people who are advocating this bill are seeking to make a religious proposition out of it. It is not, and if it were I would vote with them. It narrows down to the plain, every day, common sense way of fixing this splendid parkway, whether we are going to spend ten million dollars for a parkway and then leave back buildings by the score, back sheds and old back buildings which are a disgrace. I told one of the Board of Trade here this afternoon that I was sorry that they didn't have pictures of the many hundred back buildings that back unto this splendid extensive parkway which would show the Senators what they are doing if they vote for this proposition.

Mr. FARLEY. Mr. President, I would be the last man to engage in a religious argument for a bill of this character. The constituency that I have the honor to represent has been appealing to me to have this bill passed and I ask the gentlemen here in the Senate to vote for the bill. I think it has been fully explained both pro and con.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Farley.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farley, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FARLEY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farley, what way the city of Philadelphia would have in getting rid of the old back buildings and these many back sheds which are right up on the line of this parkway directly opposite the Green street entrance on this parkway.

Mr. FARLEY. Mr. President, by the right of eminent domain, domain which they have; haven't they?

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, this bill changes it.

Mr. FARLEY. Mr. President, I do not know, I cannot answer that.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, the Senator does not know how they can get rid of them.

Mr. FARLEY. Mr. President, no.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, neither do I.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Vare, has stated that the city has spent eight million dollars. I think they have spent twenty million dollars, and it will cost thirty million dollars. Everybody in the city for years has been advocating this parkway; we consider the parkway when completed will be the finest thoroughfare in the entire city. We have torn down magnificent buildings along the line of this parkway, ten and twelve-story buildings, to make way for it. Now if this amendment goes through, as I understand the amendment, every property owner who sells to the City of Philadelphia will have the right to purchase back that particular property that he sells. Now out in some districts, some portions of districts some of these buildings are only twelve to fourteen feet wide and any man who insists on having these particular portions of the land sold back to him would have a twelve or fourteen feet front lot there that would block the whole parkway. To my mind, and to my information, there is only one institution in the city of Philadelphia interested in this proposition and for the members of this Senate to put themselves on record and back one man in the desire to accomplish the result he wishes as against the expenditure of twenty millions of dollars and the defacing of the city of Philadelphia and spoiling possibly the grandest boulevard it ever will have or ever contemplates will certainly be a disgrace to the entire State. This is a serious proposition, and no man in this Senate ought to have the makeshift excuse of giving a promise to vote for this bill and then put the city of Philadelphia in the position of having spent all this money and accomplish nothing. This is a very serious proposition so far as Philadelphia is concerned and no man should vote "Aye" without a fair consideration. It is not a trivial matter, it is not a matter to vote upon without giving serious consideration to. It is one of the most important bills which has appeared in this Senate so far as its effect upon the progress of Philadelphia is concerned, and I want to impress this most strongly on every member of the Senate. It is an important matter and should be voted down in order to not mar the beauty of our city.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, after hearing the Senator from Philadelphia say this is only for one man, it is strange that we have as members of this Senate,—I have myself received letters—and have received a petition signed by over two thousand people along the parkway. This is a bill that would prevent people coming and taking people out of their own rights. It is, I think, a bill that is just and fair. It is not right that property should be confiscated from people and then sold to individuals, firms and corporations for their benefit. It is strange that all the people along our street, all through that section of the city, have written letters time and time again during this whole session. You will find last week in the Evening Bulletin an editorial commending this very Act, and there are numbers of people to-day in Philadelphia who are striving to have this bill enacted into a law.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Nulty.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Nulty, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Nulty, if he ever saw these back sheds and old back buildings which are a disgrace to any street and if this bill passes has the city any chance in the world of getting rid of them without buying them itself?

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, that is what they are for. They can take them themselves, but should not take them for the purpose of somebody else.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, suppose they haven't the money. How are they going to get rid of them?

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, where are they located?

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, on what we call the southern line commencing at Twenty-second street and going west to about Twenty-fourth and on the north side as well.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, they not only take these buildings but they take the right of very valuable property, not only the back buildings, but other buildings. How is it the people of Arch street have written letters, I don't know if they have written the Senator, but they have written to me, in which letters they asked to have this bill passed.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I would like to know if he has any letters from people along the line of this parkway asking to have this bill passed.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, I have filed with the Secretary of the Senate a petition signed by over twenty-five hundred people all through that section and all over the city of Philadelphia.

Mr. VARE. All over the city, but not in that section.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, all along Arch street.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, the Senator has not answered my question. I would like to ask him what way the city has of getting rid of the back sheds and back buildings that front along the line of that ten or twenty million dollar parkway?

Mr. DAIK. Mr. President, if I understand the amendment, the right of eminent domain still remains. If such is the case the city has the right to take two hundred feet on each side of the parkway, and I cannot understand why the bill is not a good one. If these sheds the Senator from Philadelphia speaks of are an eye sore, the city is able to take them away by this right and the only thing I see in the bill is that it prohibits going around and selling some man's property to some private corporation, and if the other Senators from Philadelphia say that there is only one corporation, or only one party, all I can say perhaps is that there are other parties or other corporations that are against it.

Mr. McILHENNY. Mr. President, I thoroughly agree with the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Vare. One part of this State is attempting to do a great big thing, that is, attempting to build a big parkway and only people in the city of Philadelphia realize what a stupendous work that is, to open a great thoroughfare in a large city—from the city right to Fairmount Park. Of course there is opposition to opening up any such big project. There is always opposition to a great enterprise, but its great value to the city of Philadelphia not only for light and air but for convenience to get to the park, but as a site for magnificent buildings from an artistic standpoint and for a playground for the people, it is a big addition to the city. At one end is a great art gallery and on either side large buildings of a municipal or semi-municipal character. You can't do that with eighteen feet lots. As the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Daix has said, this amendment lets the people condemn the property and sell it back to the person who owned it before. Now take an eighteen foot lot as a great many of those lots are. To sell it back to the original owner would mean that you never could make anything out of this parkway. The city must take ten or twelve lots and sell that one piece of property to some corporation, such as is intended to be used for great convention halls or great art galleries, or great museums and let them put up a building which would be a credit to the city. If this bill passes it will practically destroy the work the city of Philadelphia has done since the beginning. It was started under the act of 1907, and the city has spent six or eight million dollars. If this bill is passed the money is practically wasted. It is not fair. The city should be allowed to go ahead and invest its money in the great parkway, and to pass this bill would practically nullify the whole parkway. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Nulty, has spoken about twenty-five signers for this bill. At the hearing before the committee, which was long and patient, there was only one organization that appeared against this bill, and that was a mutual life insurance company, which would be affected by the bill but only indirectly and the proponents of this bill admitted that the only way they would be affected would be if the proceedings of the lower courts were reversed. Their property had been taken according to law. The lower court had decided the ordinance a proper measure. It has been appealed to the Supreme Court and if the Supreme Court would reverse the lower court then this bill would affect their interest. Are you going to pass a bill then which would nullify a great work? There has been no request for this except by this small corporation and if the bill is passed it will not be fair to the city of Philadelphia, a part of this State which under the act of 1907 entered into this great project, and then by repealing it without notice to the city you would nullify this great expenditure of eight million dollars.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, just one word and I am through. For the information of the Senate and some of those who do not understand what this parkway means and where it is located, it commences at the City Hall and extends clear through, northwestern direction, to the Fairmount Park. Your vote to-night decides whether you want that costly parkway or boulevard lined up with back sheds and old buildings or whether you want it bordered with art galleries and other buildings such as the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McIlhenny, has stated.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, just one more statement. Under the amendment made here, if a party originally owning the property refuses to buy back that particular portion that the city took by condemnation, the city could not sell it to anybody else and it would remain in the city's possession whether they needed it or not. They would have to own it. They would have only one customer; they would have to take that customer or have it on their hands. It would restrict the city if they desire to sell to anybody but to that one original owner. The consequence would be that they would have to sell at his own price and he could build a stable or anything else he wanted.

Mr. NULTY. Mr. President, I hold in my hand to-night two statements from very prominent papers, one from the Evening Bulletin and the other from the Public Ledger, one of them giving the decision of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts. Now I claim that this bill is simply to protect the people from being assaulted from their property rights. That is the meaning of this bill, and there are only five or six people I think interested against this bill, where there are thousands of people on the other side who want to be protected from the assault made on them by taking over their rights.

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever the councils of any city of the first class shall by ordinance or resolution determine that it is expedient to increase the public debt of such city in order to promote the construction and development of subways for transit purposes or for the construction of wharves and docks or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks as public improvements owned or to be owned by such city and it becomes necessary to ascertain under the provisions of article nine section eight of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as amended whether the debt which it is thus proposed to incur may be excluded in computing the total amount of indebtedness which such city may lawfully incur under the limitations of the Constitution the Comptroller or any other public officer of such city shall whenever so requested by the mayor of such city prepare and submit a statement showing in detail the total indebtedness of such city theretofore incurred with the dates of the maturity of such indebtedness the interest due thereon and the annual installments necessary to be paid into the sinking fund for the cancellation of such indebtedness and if any portion of such indebtedness has theretofore been incurred for any of the specific purposes hereinbefore set forth the comptroller shall in addition to the above data also report the terms of any and all agreements and contracts made by or in behalf of said city with respect to such investments the gross and current net revenue derived therefrom and also such other and further data and information in their possession with respect to such investments as shall be requisite to determine the proportion of the interest and sinking fund installments of such indebtedness which the current net revenue received by the city from such investments is sufficient to meet.

Section 2. The mayor of any city of the first class may present to any one of the Courts of Common Pleas of the county in which such city is situated a verified petition which shall set forth the facts information and data furnished to him by the comptroller or other officer as provided for in the preceding section and also all contracts or proposed contracts with respect to the operation of the public works upon which the proceeds of the proposed loan are to be expended and all official estimates as to the cost of such public works and other data relating thereto and which shall pray for a determination of the amount of any previous debt of such city which may be excluded in ascertaining its power to become otherwise indebted under the provisions of article nine section eight of the Constitution and also for a determination of the amount of the proposed indebtedness which shall be thus excluded by reason of the estimated excess of the revenue produced from the subways wharves docks or reclaimed land aforesaid over the interest on the debt thus incurred and of the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of such debt and also that said court shall determine whether or not the proposed increase of the public debt of such city for the purposes aforesaid or any part thereof can lawfully be incurred under the provisions of the aforesaid section of the Constitution and jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the said Court of Common Pleas to make such determinations.

Section 3 After the filing of the aforesaid petition the mayor shall cause to be published not less than once a week for three weeks in four daily newspapers of general circulation published in said city to be designated by the said Court of Common Pleas a notice that an application will be made to the said Court of Common Pleas on a day therein specified which shall be not less than three nor more than six weeks from the date of the first publication of said notice for the determination prayed for in the petition and in addition to the aforesaid advertisement the petition shall be printed at length in the legal journal in which other legal notices are regularly printed in such city. On the return day of such notice all parties in interest including tax payers and owners or holders of bonds or other securities of such city may appear in person or by attorney and file with the Court of Common Pleas a verified answer to the petition aforesaid. On the return day of the notice aforesaid or if evidence be taken then after the report thereon is filed the Court of Common Pleas shall appoint a time at which it will bear argument at which all parties shall be entitled to be heard and to file briefs as the said court may direct.

Section 4 After hearing the allegations and proofs and the arguments thereon of the respective parties or if no evidence be taken on or after the return day of the notice and after argument if desired the court shall render its decision stating separately the facts found and the conclusions of law and the court shall also make a final order determining the amount of indebtedness theretofore incurred which may be excluded in determining the power of the city to become otherwise indebted under the provision of article nine section eight of the Constitution and determining also whether or not the amount of the indebtedness provided for in the aforesaid ordinance or resolution of councils for the aforesaid public purposes may lawfully be incurred either in whole or in part.

Section 5 Upon the making of an order by the court of common pleas determining the whole amount of any indebtedness incurred by such city which shall be excluded in ascertaining the power of such city to become otherwise indebted such indebtedness shall thereupon be wholly excluded in ascertaining the power of said city to become otherwise indebted and upon the making of an order by said court determining that a part only of such indebtedness shall be so excluded the amount thus determined shall thereupon be excluded in ascertaining the power of such city to become otherwise indebted and upon the making of an order by the said court determining that either the whole or a part of the proposed indebtedness set forth in the aforesaid ordinances or resolution of city councils can lawfully be incurred for the purposes aforesaid upon the ground that the total limitation of indebtedness imposed by article nine section eight of the Constitution will not be exceeded authority shall thereby be conferred upon the mayor and councils of such city to increase its indebtedness in the manner and to the extent thus authorized but it shall not be lawful to expend any portion of the money thus borrowed by such city for any other purpose than the construction of subways for transit purposes or for the construction of wharves and docks or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks as public improvements to be owned by such city and to be operated leased or otherwise used as provided by law.

From the determination of the Court of Common Pleas herein provided for and from all orders made by the said court for the purpose of giving effect thereto an appeal may be taken to the supreme court of the Commonwealth in the manner prescribed for other similar appeals except that such appeal must be taken within one month after the entry of the order complained of but such determination and orders of the Court of Common Pleas shall not be subject to any other appeal or review or to collateral attack of any kind whatsoever but shall with respect to the validity of all municipal loans thus authorized and in all other respects be final and conclusive upon all persons and all public and private corporations whatsoever and the proceeding herein provided for shall be the sole and exclusive method of determining the aforesaid matters relating to increase of indebtedness of cities of the first class for the municipal purposes heretofore specified.
